

Homemaker Selected

FARMINGTON Farmington High School's "homemaker of tomorrow" is senior Suzanne Phillips. She will receive a special silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the contest, and is now eligible for one of 102 college scholarships totaling $110,000.

A state winner will be selected in the near future and will receive a $1,500 scholarship while her runner-up will be given an educational grant of $500. In addition, the winner's school will receive a complete set of Encyclopedia Britannica.

Sometime this spring, the 51 "homemakers of tomorrow" from each state and the District of Columbia will tour the Capital and colonial Williamsburg, expenses paid. During their visit, they will learn the name of the national winner.
