These include Automatik, Doug Brown and the Ones, Bobby Lewis and the Crackerjack Band, Radio City, Rick Hall Band and Alexander Zonic. Tickets can be purchased in advance at the Wagon Wheel, 2590 Rochester Road, for $3 or at the door for $10. Doug Brown and the Ones will be the regular attraction. Tuesday through Sept. 12.

● COMEDY CAPERS
Gary Kern, winner of Giggles Laughoff Contest, will play two shows, at 8:45 and 10:45 p.m. Friday-Saturday at Comedy Capers at Stafford's in Orchard Mall, West Bloomfield. Kern is a favorite at the Wit's End in Lansing. Open mike for new comics is at 9 p.m. Thursdays at Stafford's. For information, call anytime, 851-8952.

● SUNDAY CONCERT
Alexander Zonic and his trio will perform from 2-4 p.m. Sunday at the free weekly concert series at Somerset Mall in Troy. Zonic has programmed Claude Bolling's "Suite for Flute and Piano" as part of the concert. Currently Zonic can be seen from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Mondays-Saturdays at Mountain Jack's on Rochester Court in Troy.

● GONZO MOVES
Gonzo Theatre has temporarily moved to the AAW Detroit theater in the Book Cadillac Hotel after the closing of Stouffer's Northland Inn in Southfield. The satirical revue, in its 10th month, is playing a four-week run at the Detroit theater until a permanent new home is found. Performances are at 8:30 p.m. Thursdays-Saturdays, with a matinee at 2:30 Sunday. The show only is $7. A dinner-theater package is priced at $18.95. For more information, call 961-0533 or 569-4700, ext. 125.

● PINE KNOB

More than 20 agricultural and commodity groups are participating in the "Amazing Acre," new one-acre expo designed to be farming's consumer showcase, at the Michigan State Fair in Detroit. The "acre" is housed in the Agricultural Building and is open daily to the public. The nation's oldest state fair runs daily through Labor Day, Monday. Admission is $4, with children 11 and under admitted free when accompanied by an adult. Daily performances by celebrity entertainers such as Tammy Wynette, Don McLean, Chaka Khan, Doty West and Mitch Hyder are included at no extra charge in the price of admission.

● WHISTLE BLOW
The annual Ole Tashmoo Whistle Blow will be held Monday at Chuck Murr's River Crab restaurant on the St. Clair River two miles north of St. Clair. The Tashmoo sank in 1936, but its whistle blows again every Labor Day at this event. A reunion of all former crewmen and women of the Tashmoo, famous excursion steamer, will be featured. Entertainment will be furnished by the Dixie Derbies band. Barbecued hamburgers and kielbasa and beer will be available outdoors.

● COURTROOM DRAMA
The Fourth Street Playhouse will open its 1981-82 season with the Michigan premiere of Tom Topor's courtroom drama "Nuts," on Friday in Royal Oak. The 1980 Broadway hit concerns a woman patient of Bellevue Hospital and the efforts by her parents, psychiatrist and the state of New York to have her declared mentally incompetent. If found sane, she will have to stand trial for a killing she claims was justifiable homicide. "Nuts" will run at 8:30 p.m. Fridays-Saturdays and 7:30 p.m. Sundays through Oct. 10. For reservations and further information, call 543-3566.
