

Short courses offered at OCC

This fall, Oakland Community College is offering a series of non-credit, short courses ranging from Bicycle Rim Weaving, Quilling and Bagging to Aikido, Tap Dancing and English for the Foreign Born. The courses will be instructed at the Auburn Hills campus in Auburn Heights, the Highland Lakes campus in Union Lake and at the Orchard Ridge campus in Farmington Hills.

Courses are scheduled to begin in middle to late September at various times. Fees are minimal. Senior citizens will be admitted to one short course at half tuition at the Highland Lakes and Orchard Ridge campuses. Seniors interested in enrolling in a short course at the Auburn Hills campus will be admitted free, but are asked to register to reserve a seat.

Students may register for non-credit, short courses up to and including the first class meeting.

For a listing of short courses and registration information, call the Community Services Department at the Auburn Hills campus, 852-1000; the Highland Lakes campus at 363-7191; or the Orchard Ridge campus at 476-9400.

Keeping fit

DanceFit, an aerobic exercise that combines dancing with a physical-fitness workout, will begin classes this month in four sites; Mercy Center, Bonaventure, Piemontese Club and Shawassee Recreation Center. Participants have options of morning or evening classes in most sites. Registrations are being taken now by Kathy Rosowski, 477-8114. She offers baby sitting for all daytime sessions.
