Wonderland records fall

All records for the opening of the league season in the Detroit area were broken last Tuesday night when the sharpshooters took their turn on the approaches in the Wonderland Classic. When the firing ceased, they had posted a 3,400 series with three of their bowlers becoming eligible for the 700 club.

The B&B Construction team did the best battering of the pins with games of 1,194, 1,141 and 1,088 for a 3,423 series. Next came the Wonderland team with games of 1,025, 1,066 and 1,108 for 3,199. The Friedman Construction squad followed with 3,181 on games of 979, 1,198 and 1,104.

In all this heavy firing, Ken Cummins of the Friedman team, took top honors with a 701. He posted games of 297, 297 and 297. Joining him as a 700 club member were Ken Brown, of the B&B team with 733 that included a 265 middle game and John Watkins of the home squad, with 706, which was made possible by a closing 245 game.

THERE WAS some high scoring also at Merri-Bowl where Andy Neeley, bowling in the senior house league, opened with a 245 and managed a 701 series. His nearest rival was Andy Archer with a 682. He slipped to a 192 in his final game after counts of 246 and 244. Tom Trorano landed the third spot with 667, one pin more than George Chioducky.

CYNDI EDWARDS and Betty Hoerner waged a great duel in the ladies classic at Westland Bowl and when the firing ceased they were tied for the lead at 609.

Edwards had a 244 middle game and Hoerner included a 245 in her count.
