Chamber music concerts feature families

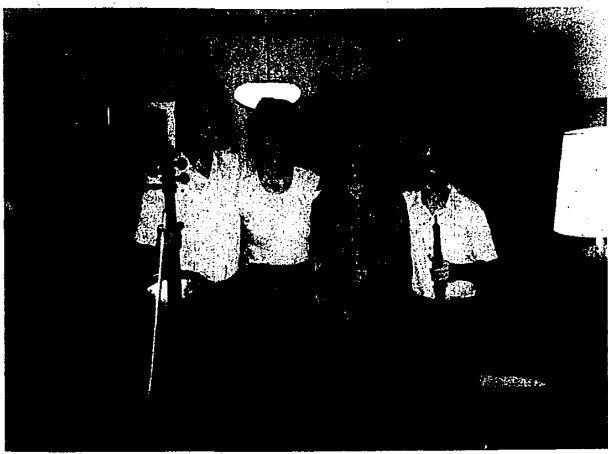

Adam Petty, age 8

The Intermezzo Chamber Music Series begins its fall program Sept. 27 at the Farmington Community Center. The Sunday concert will feature four "Families in Music" and will be held at 7 p.m. in the living room of the center. Jim and Ann Petty, son Adam, and a family friend, Gabriel Bolosky, open the program. The quartet will present An den Sonnenschein by Schumann. Their second selection, "Go Tell Aunt Rhody," will include Nicholas Petty, 4 years old, on violin. Euphonium duets will be performed by Phyllis Nelson and her son, Scott. The euphonium is a brass-wind instrument like the baritone horn but having a more mellow tone.

Both Nelsons are members of the Plymouth Community Band. Their selections will include March by Haag and works by Vobaron and Pletzsch. Joyce Weintraub Adelson and her sons Michael, Robert and Andrew will present Sonata Opus 3, No. 8 by Corelli. A father-son duet will be performed by David Mariotti on oboe and Bob Mariotti on violin. The Mariottis will be accompanied by Fontaine Laing, who is the inspiration behind the series.

Succeeding concerts will be held on Oct. 18 and Nov. 15. Tickets are $4 per person, $3 for students and senior citizens, and can be purchased at the center, 24705 Farmington Road.

The Adelson family, Michael, Joyce, Robert and Andrew, will be playing at the Farmington Community Center.
