FARMINGTON
Everyone, who reads the newspaper knows that a drive s taking place to bring all Christians together into one great organization. This endeavor is often referred to as the ecumenical movement. and its plan first calls for a merging of all Protestant bodies into one, then the uniting of catholics and Protestants, and finally the bringing under one roof af all religions!
The term "ecumenical"
means "this inhabited world."
The leaders of the great world councils which met in the past used this term because the envisioned the councils as representing God's children from every part of the earth. The goal of those promoting ecu-menism is the establishment of menism is the establishment of one great world church. Those who promote the cause of ecumenicity say that they are trying to accomplish the same thing Jesus prayed for when He said. That they all may be one, as thou. Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. 'John 17:21) Other religious sounding terms Ilke "Fatherhood of God" and the "brotherhood of man" are used to encourage us to follow along!

BUT IS THIS the "unity of the church" Jesus was speak-ing of? I do not believe so. Christian unity cannot be pro-

Christian unity is not merely a natural fellowship of persons having mutual beliefs and aspirations and who there are the control of the comment of the comment of the commence of the commence of the commence of many. Christian unity is the result of the supernatural work of God, redeeming men. Seemingly, the philosophy of the ecumenical movement is to "redeem" man's soul by an 'outside-in' action. The emphasis of the movement is to hange man inside by changing his social and economic standing, the will be unit in doing the same. God's way is just the reverse! Change man from the 'inside-out!' When his soul is changed he will want, and work toward, the socio-economic changes necessary in our world.

(John 14: 6) Man must declare himself as receiving Christ, by faith, into his life saying in effect, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. Yonly then he can rightfully call God his Father, and his 'brothers' are those all over the world who have done the same. This is God's plan for the unity of the church!—All men committed to Him and thus united in Him!
