Soroptimists Honor Three

FARMINGTON Soroptimists honored three area students at a dinner held March 5 at the Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College.

Receiving the annual Youth

Citizenship Awards were: Ken Grabowski of North Farming-ton High, $150; Carol Bruce of Novi High School, $100; and Nancy Smith of Farmington

AWARDS WERE made on the basis of leadership and character as well as scholarship.

Edwin Oglesby, Farmington attorney, was the guest speaker and spoke on the topic "Youth Today as Leaders"

Tomorrow."
Oglesby cited many examples from the contest entries of the award winning students. The highlights of their careers to date, he indicated, give promise of rich, rewarding futures if their present direction is maintained.

Union Gen. Daniel Butter-field composed in 1862 the bu-gle call known today as Taps.

Author of the "Teacher's Resource Book" being used this year in Farmington schools. Dr. Van Allen is a leading authority on the language experience approach to reading.
