table talk

THE LION dance, a ceremonial dance for Chinese New Year's, will be presented Monday at the Mon Jin Lau restaurant, 1515 E. Maple, Troy.

The dance will start at 7:30 p.m. outside the restaurant, and the general public is invited to watch. The dance will move inside, where the celebration will include a traditional Chinese dinner, firecrackers and Chinese music.

This is the Year of the Dog 6800 on the Chinese calendar. For more about the Mon-Jin-Lau party call 689-2332.

RESTAURANTS throughout metropolitan Detroit are featured in the January issue of "Michigan Living," the monthly AAA publication. This issue, devoted to the Super Bowl, includes a roundup of "Super Dining" by Editor Len Barnes.

The author's favorites include many in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area, West Bloomfield, Troy and Southfield.

BENNIGAN'S Restaurant and Tavern is under construction at 2555 Woodward, south of Square Lake Road, Bloomfield Township, with a mid-May opening expected.

Decor will be a combination of 1930s tavern and old English pub. Etched glass, wood paneling, ceiling fans, hanging globe and Tiffany-style lamps will help create the nostalgia. Wood dividers will accent the interior's tables and booths.

Seating 200, Bennigan's will have a varied dinner menu offering steak, prime rib, chicken and seafood entrees.

A KIDDIE special is now available at all 28 Tubby's Sub Shops in the tri-county Detroit area. A submarine sandwich, potato chips and 12-ounce beverage go for 99 cents, for the age 12 and under crowd.

Tubby's fast-marketed the special at some of its locations during 1981.

WIN SCHULER, chairman of the board of Win Schuler's Inc. of Marshall, recently attended the International Gold and Silver Plate Society's annual meeting in New York. The meeting was hosted by the Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park. Society members toured the school, which turns out professional cooks and bakers, and even helped prepare a luncheon dish.

Schuler's has nine family-owned restaurants in Michigan including ones in Rochester and West Bloomfield.

SUNDAY hours have been resumed at The New Rip's in Pontiac with food service available from noon to 2:30 a.m. that day. The restaurant was open seven days a week for some 35 years, until Rip's decided to close on Sundays about three years ago.

Another change at Rip's is that the restaurant now makes all the rich sauces offered on the menu, such as hollandaise, bordelaise, au gratin and bernaise.

Frog legs, roadhouse style, sauteed in Friday night butter, have been added to Friday night offerings.

Entertainment at Rip's is presented by Frick and Frack (Ron DePalma and Jimmy Fields) from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. Tuesdays-Saturdays.
