

Tourney has a heart

There are openings for bowlers to compete in a tournament this weekend at Drakeshire Lanes, 35000 Grand River, Farmington, that benefits widows and families of police officers and firefighters. The basic entry fee is $10 and squads roll off at noon and 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Prizes to $100 and a chance for trips to Toronto and Las Vegas are offered to persons who pay a slightly higher fee. Lending support, as pictured above, are Farmington Hills Fire Marshal Bill Gearbart, Nathan Harris, Bob Neugebauer, tournament directory, and Farmington Public Safety Director G. Robert Selfert. Bill DeCeaser, manager of Drakeshire Lanes, runs tournaments for the benefit throughout the state which carry at op prize of $3,000 for the bowler who does best in the nine months of competition.
