

Seaholm earns county swim title

Birmingham Seaholm established itself as a contender for the state Class A swim championship by winning the Oakland County meet Saturday at Oakland University.

The Maples won the freestyle relay plus two individual events to take the team title with 223 points. Birmingham Brother Rice was second with 201 points, followed by Rochester (132), Bloomfield Hills Andover (106) and Birmingham Groves (104).

West Bloomfield, Rochester Adams, Bloomfield Hills Lahser, Madison Heights Lamphere and Southfield-Lathrup high schools rounded out the top 10 in the 20-team field.

"We have a lot of depth — we had three to four swimmers in every event," said Seaholm coach Dick Rosenthal, whose team is undefeated in eight dual meets this season.

"We expected to do well. But, like a lot of other teams, we certainly didn't taper at this meet. We just scored fairly well because of our depth."

"We have a lot of seniors on the team, and we just happen to have a lot of kids in the building this year who are good swimmers. We have three returning All-Americans on the team — Keith Gardner, Mike Hanahan and Jeff Lundy," he said.

FIVE RECORDS were established at the annual meet, including two each by Rochester Adams' Doug Cleland and Rochester's Jim Bruzzese.

The Maples will host Andover next Thursday.

as a top swimmer in the Midwest, won the 200-IM in 1:59.4 and the 100-yard backstroke in 55.1. Bruzzese, one of the state's top specialty swimmers, broke marks in both the 100-yard butterfly (54.8) and 100-yard breaststroke (1:01.9).

Southfield Lathrup's Brian Michalek was the meet's other record breaker with a time of 21.9 in the 50-yard freestyle.

Seaholm's individual winners were Scott Christie, a freshman, who won the 200-free in a near record-setting time of 1:46.1, and John McEwen. A diver, McEwen defeated Matt Clark of Troy Athens by 10 points, 381-371.

Mark Holsington, Lundy, Al Kovach and Scott Christie were members of the Maples' winning freestyle relay team.

Rochester's medley relay team of Randy McElwain, Dan Wery, Bruzzese and Ben Stern won by a full second over Seaholm. Brother Rice was third.

Rice's Rich Kramer won the 500-yard freestyle in 4:48.3, and Groves' Scott Heskamp took the 100-yard freestyle with a time of 49.1. Rice's Dixon Kane was second in that event, followed by Lathrup's Michalek.

Seaholm, which tied Andover for the overall championship in the Southeastern Michigan Association (SMA) last year, will host Grosse Pointe South at 2 p.m. Saturday. South finished second in the state swim finals last winter.
