

Recreation News

Each week the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department will present a synopsis of activities in this column. For further information regarding our programs, contact us at 474-6115.

• ENERGY CONSERVATION WORKSHOP — The Farmington Hills senior adult center is hosting an informative three-part session on energy conservation. At 11 a.m. on Monday, Feb. 1, John Krachling, energy crisis coordinator from OLHSA, will present low-cost/no-cost ideas on saving energy in homes. Free premiums from local merchants will be given out after each workshop.

• DOWNHILL SKIING — Registration continues for the second session of downhill skiing at Mt. Brighton. The elementary school program for all fourth- and fifth-graders will take place on Fridays, Feb. 5 and 12, while the middle school and senior high activity will be held on Tuesdays, Feb. 2 and 9. Buses leave at 4:30 p.m. The $21 fee includes tow ticket, lessons and round-trip transportation. Ski rental is additional. Space is limited.

• MOONLIGHT CROSS COUNTRY SKI TOUR — Cross country ski at Glen Oaks Golf Course by moonlight. Our ski touring center will be open from 7-10 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 5. Ski rental and snack bar will be available. This activity held in cooperation with the Oakland County Parks & Recreation Commission.

• DADDY-DAUGHTER VALENTINE DANCE — Dads, don't miss this very special social event of the year. This family-oriented activity offers your daughter(s) a chance to go out on the town with dad. The dance will be from 7-8:30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 11, at the Dunkel Middle School. The dance will combine the hokey-pokey and square dances. Punch and cookies will be served. The registration fee is $2.50 dad-daughter or $3 dad and two or more daughters. You must pre-register.

For your Valentine.
For the treasures of her heart.

Our covered bone-china heart box from Hammersley Spode, with lovely violets, 2" long, 2" wide, and 1 1/4" high. $12.95

Rouge Steel Company names vice presidents

John Slosar

Two Farmington Hills residents have been named vice presidents at the new Rouge Steel Company.

John M. Slosar has been named vice president-industrial relations; Bruce G. Spengler has been named vice president-finance.

Slosar joined Ford's Industrial Relations Staff in 1960 as an industrial hygienist. He has a bachelor of science degree in chemistry from John Carroll University and a master's degree in business administration from the University of Detroit.

He served in several Ford industrial relations management positions before being appointed industrial relations manager of Steel Division early in 1981.

Spengler graduated from Pennsylvania State University with a bachelor of science degree in accounting. He joined Ford in 1956 as an accountant at the Rawsonville, Mich., Parts Plant and advanced through various plant and divisional financial management posts at Ford and the former Aeronutronic Ford Corporation before becoming controller of the Steel Division in 1978.

Rouge Steel Company, the ninth largest U.S. steel producer, was formed Jan. 1, 1982, from the former Ford Motor Company Steel Division. Its headquarters are in Dearborn.
