Brother Rice passes big cage test

By Brad Emons
staff writer

The Warriors of Birmingham Brother Rice found other means for a basketball victory.

Usually it's 6-foot-10 John Shasky or 6-8 Paul Jokisch doing the job. But Friday's 58-48 victory over host Detroit Catholic Central belonged to Greg Schwartz.

The 6-0 senior guard kept Rice tied for the Central Division lead with Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher and Detroit DeLaSalle by scoring 22 points. His previous high game was eight. Schwartz shredded the Shamrocks' zone defense by hitting 11 long-range shots in 14 attempts.

Rice coach Nick Conti, whose team is now 11-4 overall, said that Schwartz was "THE difference."

"The thing we want them (the starting guards) to understand is that there's a pretty good chance for that to happen on any night," said the Rice first-year coach.

Opposing teams have concentrated on stopping Rice's inside game, and CC's tactics were no different.

"That kid (Schwartz) was their best shooter last year," said CC coach Bernie Holowicki, "but if we go out there and challenge him, then they drop the ball inside. We're just not big enough to do that."

Shasky was still able to get his share, scoring 14. Ten of those came in the final quarter. Jokisch was held to 10.

Falcoln tankers sink Harrison

Farmington won both relay events in its 118-52 drubbing of Farmington Harrison in non-league boys' swimming last Thursday. The win lifted coach Jack Merrill's Farmington team to 5-4. Harrison is 0-5.

Lathrup senior Brian Michalk won the 200 freestyle (56.0) and the 100 free (50.7). Athens' Matt Clark won the diving event with 255.0 points.

The 200-yard medley relay (Jay Weaver, Chris Tellerio, Eric Davis and Mike Gilker) won with a time of 1:57.3, and the 400 freestyle relay crew (Alex Campbell, Chris Edwards, Matt Berrins and Tim Smith) posted a winning time of 3:52.0.

Lathrup, which owns a 1-4-2 record, swims next on Tuesday at Rochester. The meet has a 7 p.m. start.

GYMNASTICS

Other Farmington winners, Dave Krause (1:59.6 in the 200 freestyle), Steve Galat (25.0, 50 free), Jeff Beard (1:05.15, diving), Handy Gallinger (33.4, 100 free), Mark Grover (1:06.0, 100 back), and Tellerico (1:17.4, 100 backstroke).

Sophomore Dona Kebrdle won three of the four events Thursday to pace North Farmington's 116.20-95.75 gymnastics victory over Farmington.

Harrison's Steve Goodman won the 100 butterfly (1:01.4) and the 200 individual medley (2:20.3). Teammate Kirk Raddatz won the 500 free in 5:29.9. Ted Rudel, who usually wins the long free-style events for Harrison, didn't swim because of illness.

Kebrdle was the top gymnast on the uneven parallel bars (8.05), the balance beam (7.9) and floor exercise (8.15), and also took a third place in vaulting (8.0).

On Tuesday, Livonia Churchill swims at Harrison and Westland John Glenn swims at Farmington. Both meets begin at 7 p.m.

Sharon Shifra also of North Farmington won vaulting (8.35) and placed third on bars (7.4).

North's Kim Edwards earned seconds on beam (7.5) and floor (7.9), and teammate Alyne Wolf took a second on beam (8.15) and a third on floor (7.7).

Farmington's Jo Smi finished second on bars (7.5). Teammate Katie Macintosh landed third on beam (7.30).

IN ANOTHER recent meet, Southfield-Lathrup and Troy Athens tied at 86.

Farmington hosts Walled Lake Central on Thursday. North, which was to have competed in the Pioneer Invitational last Saturday, travels to Central on Feb. 16, a Tuesday.

Denawetz has not experienced being yelled at by a player. She reports only one challenge. The player stepped into her line of vision, so she was unable to see a wide serve. The chair umpire intervened to make the call. Denawetz was unperturbed. "It happens to everybody," she said.
