field center, where 25 health care specialties are offered, is another example of the trend.
Ford treats alcoholism at its Maple Grove center in West Bloomfield. It also has a kidney dialysis center in Troy.

Many hospitals are sponsoring educational seminars for the public covering many areas of prevention, such as behavior modification.
Members of the Junior League of Birmingham, trained by Ford Hospital as part of its alcohol prevention program, are going into schools in Birmingham, Troy, Bloomfield Hills and other area school district to talk about alcoholism.

"We know now the educational process must start earlier than we had expected."

DURING THE interview, Nelson was asked what he thought of the image the currently popular hospital TV shows are conveying about hospitals, doctors and medical administrators.

"They're way out of touch with reality. And the hospital administrator is usually the heavy. Totally unrealistic."
Nelson entered the hospital administration field because "it seemed like it would be an intriguing line of work. I've never done anything else."

nesota Hospital Association before coming to Ford Hospital as executive director 10 years ago. He became executive vice president in 1974. He has been a member of the AHA board of trustees since 1977.
Like many others, Nelson said he, too, is taking more responsibility for his personal health.
"I eat more selectively than I used to. I've cut down on my salt and cholesterol intake. I drink only moderately, and I never smoke cigarettes."
"I exercise moderately, though not as much as I'd like."

College sponsors trip to Italy

Oakland Community College is sponsoring a tour entitled "Art and Archaeology in Italy" from April 24 to May 4. Marilyn Finkel, chairperson of the Orchard Ridge Fine Arts Department, will direct the tour. Participants will visit Rome, Sorrento, Capri, Naples and Pompeii.

Gardens, Capitoline Museums, National Roman Museum, Tivoli, Hadrian's Villa and Villa D'Este.
Other tours include the National Archaeological Museum in Naples, the excavations of Pompeii, and a full day excursion to Capri including a visit to the Blue Grotto.

All-inclusive rates for this tour will be $1,695 per person based on double occupancy. The single supplement is $165. Rates include roundtrip airfare between Detroit and Rome, airport bus transfers, hotel accommodation, transportation between the cities of Rome, Sorrento and Capri, and various tips, fees, taxes, and service charges.

Deposits are currently being collected. Final payment is due March 10. For more information, call Marilyn Finkel, 476-9400.
