

Recreation news

Each week the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department will present a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column. For further information regarding our programs, contact us at 474-6115.

• SENIOR ADULT OUTREACH PROGRAM — The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department continues to provide senior adults in the cities of Farmington and Farmington Hills with an advocate to work on their behalf. The purpose of the program is to provide information and act as a referral agency of the Community Human Service Agencies which are capable of resolving the senior adults' needs. For further information, contact Anita Herman on Fridays between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. at 474-1407.

• CPR — This American Red Cross course is a nine-hour comprehensive class and refresher course which is offered to you by Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation and the Farmington Jaycees. Upon successful completion of this course, class members will receive cardiopulmonary resuscitation certification. The next session begins on Thursday, March 11, and will meet on Monday, March 15, and Thursday, March 18. The class will meet from 7:00 p.m. at the Shiawassee Recreation Center, 30415 Shiawassee Road. The $4 registration fee includes book and handouts.

• LAMAZE CHILDBIRTH EDUCATION — This seven-week series prepares expectant parents to participate fully in their birthing experience. The classes will give the couple an understanding of pregnancy and the mechanisms of labor and delivery. Classes should be attended during the last trimester of pregnancy. Early registration is encouraged. The classes begin on Thursdays, March 4, and they will continue through April 22. The sessions meet from 7:30-9:30 p.m. at the Shiawassee Recreation Center, 30415 Shiawassee. The class fee is $35 per couple and the session is presented by the Professional Associates in Childbirth Education.

• KAYAK LESSONS — The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Canoe and Kayak Club is sponsoring a second session of basic kayaking lessons at the North Farmington High School pool. Lessons begin on Thursday, March 11, and continue on March 18 and 25. The classes will include introductory as well as refresher lessons. The classes will meet from 7-8:30 p.m. and the fee is $25 per participant; kayaks and related equipment will be provided.

• SENIOR ADULT SPEAKER SERIES — The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation senior adult center will be hosting another speaker on Tuesday, March 2, at 11:30 a.m. The S.A.G.E. program is ready to roll. To tell you about it will be Ellen Harper of the American Association of University Women. Come and listen to her explain that S.A.G.E. stand for Senior Adults Giving to Education, a concept which links the young and senior generations in a school setting. Join us at the Gathering Place for this event.

• SUGAR LOAF SKI WEEKEND — The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department and Oakland Community College presents a spring ski weekend. The trip will begin on Friday, March 12, and continue to Sunday, March 14. The trip will include two nights lodging, two all-area lift tickets or cross country skiing, round-trip motor coach transportation and lots of fun. The bus will depart from Oakland Community College, Orchard Ridge Campus, at 5 p.m. and return on Sunday at approximately 10 p.m. The downhill and cross country ski packages are available as singles or up to four to a room. The downhill package is offered from $70-$100 per person, depending on the number of people per room and the cross country package ranges from $55 to $85 per person, depending on the number of people per room. Please register as soon as possible at the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department. The deadline is Wednesday, March 3.
