

Las Vegas night is at local Temple

The third annual Las Vegas Night benefit for the Birmingham Temple will be held March 20 beginning at 8 p.m. in the Temple building, 28611 W. 12 Mile Road, Farmington Hills, phone 477-1410.

Prizes ranging from an all-expense paid trip for two to Las Vegas, dinners at local restaurants, manicures, fruit baskets and video games are among the long list of items which can be purchased with winnings at the event.

Admission is $5 which includes a starter packet of gambling chips for use at the gaming tables.

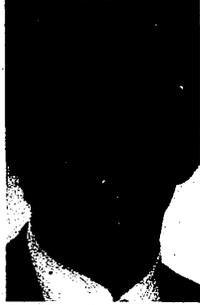

A cash bar plus a full range of games will be featured including roulette, black jack, craps and more. In addition, a raffle with a top cash prize of $500 will be drawn during the evening.

Tickets for Las Vegas night and the raffle may be purchased in advance by contacting the Temple office.

Manufacturers appoints vice president

Farmington resident David W. Cornwell has been appointed second vice president and trust officer at Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit. In this position, Cornwell is in charge of trust real estate and mineral administration for the personal trust division.

A magna cum laude graduate of the University of Michigan, Cornwell was a self-employed real estate broker and building contractor prior to joining Manufacturers. He has also served as a senior financial analyst with Ford Motor Co.
