

Center instructors put on a show for Tally Hall shoppers

Ways to learn new skills, cultivate new hobbies and explore new ideas will be demonstrated by Farmington Community Center instructors during Community Week in Tally Hall Marketplace.

Community Week is March 22-29 for the fall in Hunters Square on Orchard Lake Road, south of 14 Mile Road.

Millionaire party set

Holy Cross Greek Orthodox parish will hold a Millionaire's Party March 28 in Vladimir's, 28126 Grand River, Farmington. Games conducted by parishioners will run from 6 p.m. to midnight.

Four new features have been set. "Ladies only" Bingo offers prizes of 14k gold jewelry. There will also be a "men only" craps table.

Alas Vegas-type roulette wheel will be in operation and a hand-writing analyst will be on hand.

Tickets will be available at the door at $2 per ticket. Each ticket has a chance for a $1,000 grand prize.

Junior Women to hear fashion coordinator

Farmington Hills Junior Women's Club will hear a speaker from Casual Corners, a fashion store in 12 Oaks Mall, at 9 p.m. Wednesday. The club will meet in the home of Judy Johnson, 30180 Northwick Court.

The fashion coordinator will tell how to coordinate a wardrobe and organize a closet.

Membership inquiries will be taken by Sandy Donlon, 661-1684.

more than 500 classes and workshops each year. The center is dedicated to the cultural, educational, civic and social pursuits of the community, with the classes and workshops are geared for those from preschool to senior citizens.

Betty Haynes will show how to make porcelainized flowers. Eve Edwards will show how to make authentic reproductions of antique dolls.

Silk flowers will be put together by Mary Foran. Mary King will head up the demonstrations on the art of quilting.

Isabel Arakalian shows how to make needlelace, and Valentine Novacek will show how to take an old fur coat and remodel it to suit today's fashion.

MOST OF the instructors will be in the marketplace several times during the week, scheduled for morning, afternoon or evening hours.

In the performing arts department, Gerry Dzubinski gives a performance with his guitar at 6:30 p.m. Monday, and Shirley St. Mary brings her tap dancers for a session at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Call basketry is the forte of Theresa Ohno. Frank Lohan shows the shoppers how to sketch with pen and ink, and Marge Chellstorp shows her way with watercolors.

Marlene Coffey comes to Tally Hall at 1:30 and 6:30 p.m. Wednesday with styles and fashions to show, then again for a noon show Friday.

Co-op Nursery enrolls tots

Farmington Co-op Nursery now is accepting enrollment for the fall-winter 1982-83 session. Classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday mornings for 3-year-olds, and on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings or Tuesday and Thursday afternoons for 4-year-olds. Inquiries taken by Ingrid Hauser, 477-0170.

Summerdance

Barbara Seinger of Farmington will perform her choreographic work "Summerdance" in two Wayne State University Dance Company Concerts this weekend. Shows are at 8:30 p.m. Friday and 2 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Saturday in Community Arts Auditorium. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Nursery hosts open house

Nardin Park Community Nursery School, located in Nardin Park United Methodist Church, 11 Mile Road west of Middlebelt Road, will host an open house from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, March 28.

The open house provides a time for parents and their children to see the school, meet the teachers and other parents. It is an educational facility under the supervision of trained teachers where children develop new skills and practice them in a motivated environment.
