

Breckenridge-Roorda

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Breckenridge of Grasse Pointe Woods announce the engagement of their daughter Heather Anne to Brian John Roorda, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Roorda of Farmington Hills.

The bride-to-be and her fiancé are both graduates of Center for Creative Studies in Detroit. He is employed with Bechtel Corp. in Ann Arbor. A May wedding is planned.

Foster-Lockwood

Susan Jean Lockwood and Douglas Alan Foster were married by the Rev. George Ramsey in First Presbyterian Church of Farmington. She is the daughter of Richard Lockwood of Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morely Foster of Farmington Hills.

The bride's white long gown was fastened with a lace and beaded bodice and full train. She was attended by Debby Clark, Susan Masland and Diane Foster.

Jerry Doot served as best man with groomsmen Michael Lockwood, Michael Foster and Michael Lindsall. The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Western Michigan University.

The couple received guests in Baypointe Country Club before leaving on a trip to Mexico. They will make their home in Hartland.

McMann-Fiedler

Janice Marie Fiedler and Frederick William McMann were married in ceremonies conducted by the Rev. Charles Fox and Father Gary Schulte in Mercy Center. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fiedler of Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McMann of Royal Oak.

The bride wore a gown of ivory English net and Alençon lace with a headpiece of Alençon lace adorned with pearls while she carried a bouquet of gardenias and roses.

She was attended by Kyle Wright, Elizabeth Geseman, Barbara Ann Geseman, Sharon Garbac and Patricia Spout, all clad in antique pink chiffon.

The groom was attended by James Brabant, James Baters, John Bibbler, Douglas Fiedler and Richard Houme.

The bride is a graduate of University of Michigan, employed as a reservation sales agent for Delta Airlines. The bridegroom is a graduate of Western Michigan University, employed as an engineer for Camperden Technology in Troy.

The couple received guests in Mercy Center immediately following the ceremony before leaving on a wedding trip to Hawaii. They will make their home in Royal Oak.

May Designer Showhouse to benefit Artrain

"Living with Art" is the theme of the 1982 Designer Showhouse, a May 1-23 benefit for Artrain, Inc., the nation's only traveling museum housed in a train.

To be presented in a contemporary home built by Birmingham's Sherry Homes, Inc., the designer showhouse will feature 10 top local interior design firms and the work of leading artists and artisans.

Kette Gornick of Bloomfield Hills and Gaylord is the general chairman of the committee which is planning tours of the showhouse, plus associated sales, and miscellaneous activities during the 23-day benefit. The house is located at 2954 Chambord Drive off Middlebelt between Lone Pine and Walnut Lake roads, West Bloomfield.

The showhouse will be formally opened with a 6 p.m. April 29 champagne preview party planned by Millie Pastor of Bloomfield Hills and Rosanne Schussel of Birmingham. Catering the party will be Ron Crittendon and La Marmite. Tickets for the preview are $25 per person, available by calling Artrain, 871-2913.

The showhouse will be open to the public beginning Saturday, May 1 and will remain open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Saturday, 6-9 p.m. each Thursday, and noon to 4 p.m. each Sunday. Tickets are $5 at the door, $4 if purchased before May 1, and $3.50 for senior citizens and groups of 20 or more. Advance tickets are available at Alvin's stores, Decorative Interiors in Orchard Mall, all Sanders stores, Colony Interiors in the Somerset Mall, German's, and all Hudson's Design Center.

Interior Design firms participating in the benefit include Colony Interiors by David Sklar, A.S.I.D., Decorative Interiors by M. J. Finks, Gary Flowers, George Williams Interiors Ltd., Gorman's Gallery and Robert Siegel, A.S.I.D., Julie A. Baba, A.S.I.D., Barbara Waldron, A.S.I.D., Inside Job and Mary Ann Seyfried, J. L. Hudson Company and Howard W. Davidson and Susan Salley Zinger, Larry Ebel & Associates, Millie B. Simon, and Paul D. Canvasser, A.S.I.D.

Each designer will integrate a variety of artwork into the interiors to express the theme "Living with Art." Among the galleries and artists who will be represented are Robert L. Kidd Associates, Inc., Carol Hooberman Gallery, Donald Morris Gallery, Grinsten Jewelry and Design, Inc., the Yaw Gallery, and sculptor Marshall Fredericks. Other artists, galleries, and design firms to be involved are James R. Gilbert, Chuck Nitti, Belmont Speroni, Habat Galleries, Inc., John Baughman & Associates, Lee Hoffman, London Arts, Inc., Park West Galleries, Rozmallyn, and Xochipilli Gallery.

OTHER FEATURES of the designer showhouse will be a sales shop located in the home's garage, coordinated by Edith Kaufman of the Poster Gallery, Detroit. Special activities are being planned for the three consecutive Thursday nights during "Living with Art." Also, a wine bar with a $1 donation, live music featuring a grand piano in the living room, and cooking demonstrations with samples in the kitchen. Food preparation will be provided by the C. A. Muer Corporation on May 6, and by Pete Tenuta's Villa Rio and Lupe on May 13 and 20.

The Artrain committee will staff the designer showhouse, providing guides to each room to assist patrons and describe the decor and artwork. Jeanette Weiss of Detroit and Caroly Pearson of Grosse Pointe are co-chairwomen of the volunteer committee.
