

Recreation News

Each week the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department will present a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column. For further information regarding our programs, contact us at 474-6115.

MEADOWBROOK HALL & BORDINE'S TOUR — Join us Tuesday, May 11, for lunch, served in the main dining room of Meadowbrook Hall and afterward enjoy a guided tour of the 100-room Tudor mansion and the Dodge greenhouse and grounds. On the way home, we will stop at Bordine's Nursery and Greenhouse in Rochester. The cost of this trip is $14.50, which includes round-trip transportation, luncheon and guided tour. Registration deadline is April 16.

SENIOR ADULT DISCOUNT PICTURES — The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation senior adult staff is again hosting at The Gathering Place senior discount card distribution. Oakland-Livingston Human Services Agency personnel will be at the center on Friday, April 16, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30-2:30 p.m. to take your picture and issue identification cards. You will need to bring your Social Security number and proof of Oakland County residence and you must be 60 years of age or older. The senior adult center is located at Mercy Center on 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt.

BOATING SAFETY CLINIC — Farmington Hills, along with the Oakland County Sheriff's Department and the Department of Natural Resources, will host its annual boating safety clinic on two consecutive Wednesdays, April 21 and April 22. You must attend both sessions, to be held 6:30-9:30 p.m. Preregistration is mandatory at the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation office. Fee is $3.

ADAPTIVE DANCERCISE CLASS — The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation offering recreation program is offering an excellent opportunity for all mild to moderately handicapped youth. Stay in shape or tone up with Dancercise, a blend of dance steps to popular music and physical fitness. The next session begins Monday, April 19, at the Shawwassee Recreation Center. The class meets 6:30-7:15 p.m. and it will continue for eight weeks through June 14. Fee is $12 per participant.

SENIOR ADULT ACTIVITIES — The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation senior adult center continues to offer various weekly activities for your enjoyment. Special activities include a film presentation on Tuesday, April 20, at 11 a.m. The Farmington Community Library will present "Springtime in Holland," a film that describes the aspects of Holland's culture and historical background. Wednesdays include oil painting at 1:15 p.m. and an opportunity to utilize professional instructors while completing an oil design of your choosing; the volleyball group gets together on Thursdays at 1:30 p.m. in the gym; loose clothing and an all-purpose gym shoe will be needed. The senior adult center is located at the Mercy Center on 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt.

Century-Fox Video expands services

Earlier this year, the name of Magnetic Video Corporation was changed to Twentieth Century-Fox Video, Inc., and at the same time, the company announced expansion of its video production and post-production facilities located in Farmington Hills.

This facility now features two fully equipped and operational one-inch computerized editing suites serving advertising agencies, motion picture studios, broadcasters and industrial groups.

The Twentieth Century-Fox Video production/post-production center also specializes in film-to-tape transfers and capabilities for scene-by-scene color corrections.

Another new feature of the facility includes an enlarged production control room, providing a more spacious work environment for clients and staff.

Recently completed work includes the 1982 Competitive Comparison for the New Chrysler Corp.; production by Visual Concepts and Ross Roy, film-to-tape transfer and post-production for Cadillac, Pontiac and Chevrolet by Harvey's Place, Detroit; agencies: D'Arcy-MacManus and Mastus, Campbell.

Ringel appointed contract manager

Henry J. Andries, president of ASR Multi Construction, Inc., announces the appointment of Norman E. Ringel of Farmington Hills as contract manager. Ringel attended Shelbyville Vocational School, where he majored in drafting, plumbing, and mechanical detailing.

Prior positions include superintendent, Midwest Mechanical Contractors, a subsidiary of R.E. Dailey & Co., Detroit and estimator/mechanical superintendent/project manager, the Stiles Co., Sheboygan, Wis.

Ringel has more than 35 years of experience in the construction industry.

ASR is a subsidiary of Multi Construction Holdings, Inc., the North American holding company owned by Multi Construction and Engineering Limited of the United Kingdom.
