CHURCH OF ST. EDITH'S SOCIAL CLUB FOR WIDOWS AND WIDOWERS meet at 7:30 p.m. for a night in the church hall, 15089 Newburgh Road, Livonia. Program for the evening will come from the Versattles, who will present a variety show.

Admission is $3, asked at the door. The event is planned for widows and widowers only. Club membership inquiries are taken by Sarah Skatkat, 464-3136.

DETROIT TIP TOPPERS, a social club for men and women of tall stature, host a spring dance at 8 p.m. Friday, April 16, in Roma's of Bloomfield. The event is a fund-raiser for the club. Guests do not have to be 5 foot 10 inches or 6 feet two inches, which is the requirement for the women and men members.

Music for the dance will be furnished by Sand Castle. Admission is $5 at the door.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS, Farmington Hills Chapter 2085, meets at 1:30 p.m. Friday, April 16, in Farmington Hills Community Library's lower level at 32737 12 Mile Road.

The film, "Maple Sugar Farmer," will be shown. It is a pictorial review of a six-generation family tradition.

Membership is open to all people over the age of 55, retired or not. Membership inquiries are taken by Henry Houseman, 355-1173.

GREATER DETROIT CHRYSANTHEMUM SOCIETY meets at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18, in the community room of Tel-12 Mall, 12 Mile and Telegraph, Southfield.

Program for the afternoon will be led by Avery Dele, president of Tri-Town Garden Club. His program is called "Making Cuttings and Preparing and Transplanting Seedlings."

The local group will be host for the National Chrysanthemum Show in October which will take place in Tel-12 Mall.

METROPOLITAN ROSE SOCIETY provides an opportunity for rose growers to learn how to prune their plants correctly at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, April 18 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Von Koss, 1355 Melton, Birmingham.

Guests are invited to bring their own clippers and prune a bush under the supervision of a consulting rosarian.

Pat Hibbard, spokesperson for the society, says, "A properly pruned rose bush will produce quality blooms and will renew itself each year by sending out new canes from the bud union. A properly pruned bush is also less liable to have blackspot or mildew."

There is no charge. Reservations are not required.

MOTHERS OF TWINS CLUB, Western Wayne County Chapter, hosts a mini sale of children's clothing at 8 p.m. Monday, April 19 in Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church, 30560 Six Mile Road, Livonia.

The event is open to mothers of twins or triplets. Membership inquiries are taken by Kathy Lucas, 533-0644.

Membership inquiries will be taken by Sara Brooks at 661-5414.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN (AAUW), Farmington Branch, hosts its annual branch dinner at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 21 in Vladimir's Restaurant.

During the annual dinner, the group announces its Name Grant Honorees for the year. Scholarship money will be sent to AAUW National Education Foundation in their names, to be used to further the education of women.

Program for the evening will be given by the Universalist-Unitarian Reader's Theatre under the direction of AAUW member Hope Nahstoll. The readers will enact "The Celebration of the Life of Elizabeth Cady Stanton," subtitled "For Humanities Sake." The play was written by Darrell Eubank with research for the work done in Johnstown, N.Y. Much of the dialogue is written in the words of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony.

Nahstoll has traveled with the show throughout the metropolitan area.

Protagonist in the show is played by Gordon Wilson. The four stages of Elizabeth Cady Stanton's life are portrayed by Maria Steiger, Norma Cole, Rona Fisher and Nahstoll.

The U-U Reader's Theatre will be introduced by Joan Kahn-Schneider, minister of the U-U Church in Farmington Hills.

The dinner is staged for members and invited guests only. Reservations are taken by Barbara Temporelli, before April 17, by calling her at 474-1950.
