

ALL GRILLS ON SALE! SAVE $50 to $195Charmglow

Model 924A
Charmglow's
top-of-the-line
Classic gas grill offers the maximum in convenience, durability and beauty. 481
sq. in.
cooking
area.

Model 924A

broilmasterBROILMASTER

Heavy duty Porcelain enameled cast iron cooking grids, easy to clean, long lasting. Standard on all models with cast iron Dow-Tie burner.

CHARMGLOW, ARKLA, SEARS, CHARBROIL

MOST REPLACEMENT PARTS IN STOCK

Mon.-Thur. 10-7
Fri. 10-9
Sat. 10-6

Michigan Fireplace & Bar-B-Que
2908 Long Lake (at Dequindre)

Troy
689-2296

Lustra Wall Porch Enclosures

Save Money!
Direct Factory Prices Now Available To You!

"18 years of quality experience and service"

The very best in quality- Heavy extruded aluminum- Double strength glass-Steel ball bearing rollers-Wood grained exterior knee wall-Optional exterior color

WE ALSO MANUFACTURE:

• Extra Insulated Thermopane Windows
• Perfect Match Glass Doorwall Storms
• Prime Doorwall

Patio Door Sales, Inc.

Factory Showroom

25461 W. Seven Mile Rd., Redford Twp. 48240
538-6288

Since 1963
Lic. #21004

538-6212

rosesFrom War of the Roses to your yard, roses are hardy

"A rose is a rose is a rose" or is it? Botanically speaking, a rose by any other name might be called a strawberry or an apple.

Rose, strawberries and apples (as well as almonds, raspberries and peaches) are all first cousins belonging to the biological family Rosaceae, all roses, from the most ancient to modern, being of the genus Rosa.

Roses can be found throughout history, appearing on the emblems, awards, currency and postage stamps of many nations.

In the time of Napoleon, the Empress Josephine paid special tribute to the rose, establishing extensive formal gardens at Malmaison, with planting of all the known roses of her day over 250 varieties.

Probably the rose's most famous historical role was in the English Wars of the Roses, when the House of York adopted the white rose as its emblem, opposed by the red rose emblem of the House of Lancaster. When the two factions ended their difference, a new Tudor rose (blending red and white) emerged as the national emblem of England.

THERE IS MORE than one way to plant a rose and more than one reason. Don't be a timid gardener and restrict your roses to the traditional "rose garden." Roses are hardy plants, far more versatile than they're often credited for being and can perform a wide variety of landscaping chores.

Be resourceful and blend colorful hybrid tea roses with annuals or bulbs. Use an arbor of climbing roses to mask a dead tree or an unsightly wall. Line a front pathway with a multitude of rosebushes for a cheerful welcome home.

Often the key word in landscaping is restraint. A single, well placed rosebush can act as the focal point or a bold accent to a garden design.

A specimen tree rose can offer just the right splash of color against a plain brick wall, or a single vivid pink shrub can add perfect interest to a lush green lawn.

THE VARIETIES of roses are endless: there are as many types and colors of roses as there are tastes. Once you've decided what bloom meets your landscaping requirements, consider which specific rose variety will perform best under your particular growing conditions.

Begin by visiting public gardens where a wide variety of roses are displayed. Consult your local garden clubs or rose societies and call your county agent or write to the State Cooperative Extension Service for lists of roses that grow well in your state.

KOHLER WHIRLPOOL BATHS

A great whirlpool bath begins with a great bathtub. Kohler makes both. Kohler whirlpools are designed to accommodate you...comfortably. With more built-in, fully adjustable jets than many other whirlpool baths. Dual air controls for more pleasurable water massage. Safety--designed timers to select the length of your bath. And an unmatched selection of Kohler colors. Choose from The Super Bath Whirlpool, a luxurious acrylic bathing oval nearly 5½'x7'x20" deep, with six whirlpool jets; The Infinity Bath® Whirlpool, luxurious for one, spacious for two. In acrylic, 5'x42"x20" deep; the 6' Caribbean Whirlpool, or the extra deep 5' Steeping Bath Whirlpool, all in durable enameled cast iron. Or the 5' Barbados Whirlpool, a one-piece fiberglass bathing module.

THE SUPER BATH WHIRLPOOL

BATH Magic

Michigan's Largest Sales Center &
Showroom

520 Eleven Mile Road • Royal Oak • 547-5252

Featuring KOHLER
Bath & Leisure Products