Dining Out With THE AMERICAN EXPRESS CARD

There's Something Fishy At J. Ross Browne's

A collection of imaginative house specialties has been created by the chefs at the three outstanding J. Ross Browne's seafood restaurants in the Detroit area. Those who normally take their seafood plain can look forward to a big treat with these unusual specialties. As an example, seabass fans will delight at The San Franciscan, a pure white fillet of mild seabass which is coated with sesame seeds and breadcrumbs prior to being sautéed to a delicate brown. It is then flambéed with a hint of dark Puerto Rican rum. There is also a Chablis Baked Seabass which is covered with celery, onions, tomatoes, bell peppers and bread crumbs, then baked in Chablis wine and baked to perfection. The Brandied Lobster Stir Fry is a colorful array of tender lobster chunks, whole mandarin oranges, carrots, mushrooms and bell peppers, quickly stir fried and flambéed with brandy.

One of the most popular items on the menu is the Gourmet Stuffed Shrimp. Order this delight of gourmet-size shrimp filled with a crabmeat and sautéed mushroom stuffing. For a finishing touch, they are covered with Monterey Jack cheese and baked to a bubbly brown.

For the diner who can't choose between all of the tempting seafood selections, the chef has created a Bountiful Seafood Platter For Two. You can feast on a hearty sampling of Alaskan King Crab, Lobster Tail, Sautéed Sole, Almondine and Deep Fried Shrimp.

Located in Bloomfield Hills, Southfield, Okemos and Warren, J. Ross Browne's restaurants serve dinner nightly. For reservations or information, call the location nearest you.
