Dining Out With THE AMERICAN EXPRESS CARD

Fresh Fish For Sassy Appetites.

Seafood lovers who may have missed their place to the coast can recoup the loss by visiting any one of the three Detroit area J. Ross Browne's restaurants.

While most other seafood emporiums may only offer one or two fresh seafood selections, J. Ross Browne's manages to gather several varieties of fresh fish every day.

A special announcement is inserted in the J. Ross Browne's menu which apprise guests of the fresh catch of the day and the price of each entrée. The chef will create a special recipe for each selection designed to accent the seafood's particular qualities. The server can describe how each entrée is prepared.

In addition to the selection of fresh fish, diners may also enjoy the seafood house specialties which are always available. Those with a taste for beef will enjoy the various cuts of prime rib and steak that are always available as well as tempting beef and seafood combinations.

All entrées are priced from $7.95 to $16.95 and include salad, hot bread, vegetables and a choice of long grain & wild rice, redskin or baked potatoes.

Mountain Jacks Brings The Feast To The Fore

Anyone who feels it's been far too long since his last real beef delight should pay a visit to any one of the five Detroit area Mountain Jacks. A specialty of the house is an extravagant Beef Feast for Two designed to tantalize the taste buds of all beef lovers.

Mountain Jacks has combined the three cuts of beef that beef fanciers prefer—sizzling top sirloin, tender filet mignon and robust prime rib. Ample portions cooked to order are heaped on a platter for two, and complimented by horseradish, chablis wine-butter and au jus. Hearty appetites also will relish the accompaniments served with every Mountain Jacks dinner, including homemade soup of the day, a salad made from an array of fresh ingredients, fresh hot bread and creamy butter plus a choice of long grain and wild rice, home fries or a baked potato. Though one might expect to pay a king's ransom for a feast of these proportions, the Beef Feast for Two is priced at $9.95 per person.

For those who fancy a unique treat, tempting specialties await the hungry at Mountain Jacks. The Stuffed Filet Mignon combines savory seasoned mushrooms tucked inside a tender cut of filet mignon and wrapped in bacon, then char-broiled to order and served blanketed by more sautéed mushrooms. The Crab Stuffed New Yorker presents a delicious New York strip steak stuffed with crab and mushrooms, then charbroiled and served with mushrooms sautéed in brandied-butter.

Guests also may select a fresh fish of the day or choose one of the various beef and seafood combinations, while purists in the market for a very good steak may select from several cuts in sizes to please every appetite.

Carlos Murphy's Makes A Meal For Beans

SOUTHFIELD...With Cinco de Mayo (May 5th) fast approaching, Carlos Murphy's personnel have been busy preparing for the traditional Mexican celebration. Revelers looking for the excitement of a Mexican Fiesta will not be disappointed with the festivities planned at Carlos Murphy's for the entire month of May.

For those who wish to dine away the hours, Carlos Murphy's extensive menu offers savory hickory smoked specialties, cheesy quesiches and crepes, beefy burgers and sandwiches, crunchy salads and, of course, spicy Mexican fare.

Anyone looking for his just desserts will strike it rich with the many Murphy's selections. The Monster Cookie, which threatens to conquer Detroit, begins with a not-so-humble-sized chocolate chip cookie, heaped with ice cream, slathered with chocolate fudge, piled with whipped cream, chopped nuts and topped with a modest cherry. Deep Fried Ice Cream is a marvel worth investigating, and the Apple Burrito is enough to make a bandito lay his revolver down.

Carlos Murphy himself could not be reached for comment on the exact details of the May events, but sources close to the little fellow say that Murphy's promises a real bang up celebration.
