Area Supercross stars set for showdown

Rochester's Kris Bigelow and Troy's Alan King are two of 13 Michigan riders entered in the Budweister Supercross Championships this weekend at the Pontiac Silverdome.

King is a nationally-ranked rider who represents Team Suzuki. He finished eighth in the 500 cc AMA national championship series last year.

Bigelow, a member of the Swedish Husqvarna team, finished fourth in the 250 cc national championship series. He excited local fans at last year's Silverdome event when he led a qualifying heat before finishing third and eventually qualified for the final.

The two-day championship series features double-header races, consisting of four 20-rider heats in which four riders qualify for the final. The 20-lap championship finale features 21 riders who glide their way over one obstacle after another for 25 minutes.

Races begin 7:30 p.m. Saturday and 1:30 p.m. Sunday. After the professional Budweiser Supercross championship Sunday, spectators can stay at no extra charge to watch local riders in the stadium.

Tickets are on sale at area motorcycle stores, Hudson's, CTC outlets and the Pontiac Silverdome box office. Advance tickets are $9 for adults and $4.50 for children 12 and underr. On race day, tickets are $1 more.

● SALMON RUN

Some lucky fisherman will be $10,000 richer on May 1 by participating in the "Slippery Charley" River Crab Salmon Stakes.

A fish tagged "Slippery Charley" and 10 to 20 other fish bearing $500 Chuck Muer restaurant tags will be released in the St. Clair River somewhere between Lake St. Clair and Lake Huron. The fish christened "Slippery Charley" will be the one worth $10,000.

Officials of the Bluewater Sportfishing Association and the River Crab, co-sponsors of the event, are maintaining secrecy about the whereabouts of the prized fish. The general public is invited to try for these special fish with no registration fee or entry fee required.

"Last year, a record 500 fishermen turned out, and we didn't even have cash prizes," said River Crab General Manager Paulette Winn.

The public is invited to witness the fish weigh-in from 2-3 p.m. on the parking lot of the River Crab, 1½ miles north of St. Clair on North River Road.

For further information, call 329-2253.

● RUGBY CHAMPIONSHIP

The Detroit Rugby Club is hosting the 1982 Stroh's Mid-America Cup Rugby Tournament this weekend at Farwell Field in Detroit.

The tourney decides the championship of the Midwest Rugby Union's 130 clubs. The winner advances to the national finals in San Francisco next month.

Play starts 10 a.m. Saaturday and Sunday at the four fields located behind the Light Guard Armory on east Eight Mile Road, two blocks east of Ryan. Admission is free.

Detroit plays Springfield RFC in the first round. The championship game is 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Major contenders include the defending champion Minneapolis RFC, and teams from Ohio, Iowa, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky.

In rugby, an oversized football is advanced by running, later passing and kicking. No blocking is allowed. The game is played in two 40-minute halves, with a five-minute halftime and no substitutions except for serious injury.

The Detroit Rugby Club, which is seeking new players, has a 50-man roster which includes players from the Farmington, Birmingham-Bloomfield and Troy areas.

● SUMMER SPORTS SCHOOLS

St. Mary's College of Orchard Lake will host a number of sports schools this summer on its campus.

The basketball and football camps offer instruction on both the individual and team level.

Tim Domke, athletic director and former basketball assistant coach at the University of Detroit, and Robert Shoemkaer, head basketball coach for the Michigan state Class C high school champion St. Mary's team, are the featured instructors.

They will be assisted by Tom Negoshian, Rick Krisniski and Michael Cash.

There will be three one-week basketball camps, starting June 27, July 18 and Aug. 1. The football camp begins Aug. 8.

Both boarding programs and day programs are available. For further information, write Summer Sports School, St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake 48033 or call 682-1885.

● STUDENT POWER

"Student Power" will be on exhibit at Walled Lake Central High School tomorrow and Saturday.

It will be run in conjunction with the 24-hour volleyball marathon conducted by the Central students who have raised more than $76,000 for various charities during the last five years.

This year, students have selected the Michigan Lupus Foundation (MLF) as the beneficiary of their marathon.

Anyone wishing to support the students through a pledge should call Walled Lake Central at 624-1523.
