Venson shines in Falcon victory

Farmington baseball coach Tony Wenson is beaming with pride over the exploits of his younger brother. Paul Wenson, the the ace of the Fal-cons' pitching staff this season, tossed a three-hitter Monday to help Farming-ton blank Waterford Township, 4-0, in the Inter Lakes Leazue.

Wenson, a junior right-hander, went the distance, striking out 12 and walk-ing three.

"He has about four pitches, and he was mixing them up pretty well," said O'Malley, Farmington's junior third the elder Wesson, a basehall standout samma, tripled and doubtled in three at Farmington in the early 1970s. "His fastball is the hardest pitch to hit.

"The Welderford spink lodge me. I will be a long to the part of three and knocked in a run."

"The Waterford coach told me I could go all the way with a kid like im. That's quite a compliment coming from the opposition."
