

Netters show pizzazz in Buddy's tourney

The clay courts of the Detroit Tennis Club in Farmington Hills were host this past weekend to the 10th Detroit Tennis Club/Buddy's Pizza Open.

The tournament attracted 150 players from across the country and more than 2,000 spectators.

In the Open Class, Maurice Hunter, a former Detroit now living in Los Angeles, defeated Erik Iskersky from Rosford, Ohio, 6-3, 6-4. The match was played indoors due to rain Sunday afternoon.

Hunter, ranked 299 by the Association of Tennis Professionals, was seeded third in the tournament, and Iskersky, ranked 79 by the ATP, was seeded number one. This year's finals was a repeat of the last year's with a different result. Iskersky was the tournament champ in 1980 and '81.

Hunter took home $1,000 for his efforts, Iskersky won $500.

ISKERSKY DEFEATED THE NCAA singles champion Mike Leach from the University of Michigan 6-1, 6-4, in the semifinals. Leach was seeded number two in the tournament and is ranked 399 in the world by the ATP.

Hunter defeated Ed Nagel of West Bloomfield, 6-2, 6-3, in the other semifinal. Nagel won the number one singles state championship for West Bloomfield this spring. Nagel was seeded fourth in the tournament and is ranked 444 by the ATP.

Nagel defeated Jon Hainline, former teaching pro at the Farmington Hills Racket Club, now teaching at the Square Lake Racket Club, 6-1, 3-6, 6-2, in the quarterfinals.

In the Men's 35 (35 years of age and over) division, Dennis Grainger from Farmington Hills defeated Mark Rosenfeld from Jackson, 6-1, 6-3. Grainger is the Michigan Indoor Champion in his age bracket and was seeded number one for the tournament. Rosenfeld was seeded second.

In the semifinals, Rosenfeld beat Rick Kammer, the number three seed, from Bloomfield Hills 6-3, 6-3.

In the other semis, Grainger defeated Denton Johnson from Detroit, 7-5, 6-4.

IN THE MEN'S 45 division, Lester Sack, the number two seed from Memphis, Tenn., beat Russell Seymour, the number one seed from Jackson, Miss., 6-2, 6-4.

Sack is ranked 14th in the world in the 45 and over age bracket while Seymour is ranked number two in 45 and over and number one in 50 and over.

In the Men's 55 division, Leonard Brose from Southfield, the number one seed, beat Hal Cook, the number three seed from Midland, 6-1, 6-0. Brose has won the Men's 45 class every year but one since he has been eligible to play in that age group. This was his first year in the 55-year-old age bracket.

Cook is ranked number two by the Western Tennis Association in the 55 and over age bracket.

This is the first year the Detroit Tennis Club Open Tournament has been sponsored by Buddy's Pizza.

In the semifinal round, Brose defeated Al Gross of West Bloomfield 6-3, 6-2.

In the other semis, Cook beat Bill Mitchell, originally from Birmingham but now from Canton, Ohio, 6-7 (8-10), 7-6 (7-2), 3-0 retired.

Hills wins pair in Legion play

The Bloomfield Hills American Legion baseball team had a pair of 10-hit games last week enroute to victories over Milford, 7-0, and Berkley, 5-2.

The wins boosted Bloomfield Hills into fourth place in the 12-team league with a 3-2 record, behind undefeated (5-0) Royal Oak and Oxford.

"We got off to kind of a rocky start with two losses in our first three games, but we're starting to roll again," said coach Norm Kaplan.

"I think we're a stronger team this year than last year," he said.

"Half of our players are returning, and we're hitting the ball a lot better and harder this year."

Sunday, against Berkley in a game called after five innings due to rain, Chip Vaughan raised his record to 2-0 despite allowing 10 walks. The Pontiac Catholic hurler allowed only two singles.

Bloomfield Hills scored the eventual winning run in the third inning.

Mike Baughman of Brother Rice led off with a double, and scored the team's second run on a base hit by Chad Switzer. Kevin Granader then knocked in Switzer with a double with Granader scored on a base hit by Mike Rom.

Switzer was three-for-three with three RBI, while Granader and Rom each had two hits. Jim Robert contributed a triple to the Hills offense.

Jeff Price picked up a save when he relieved Vaughan with two outs and the bases loaded in the fifth inning.

Steve Baker took the loss for Berkley.

AGAINST MILFORD, Matt Glenn was the winning pitcher as he scattered four hits and struck out six. The losing pitcher was Dan Szymanski.

Bill Rankin had a double and home run that produced three RBI to lead the Bloomfield Hills offensive attack. Dave Kuntzman had a two-for-four performance, and Baughman had a solo home run.

Bloomfield Hills scored four runs on five hits in the third inning.
