Zagaroli Collection

A.

The base panel on this tall grandfather is carved in relief and inlaid with rare olive ash burl veneer.

Still more of this precious wood is used to set off the commanding pediment and point up the serpentine cornice.

Such lavish use of contrasting woods is typical of designer David Zagaroli. So is the use of finely carved columns interrupted by rosettes.

The richly ornamented arch dial is finished in satin brass. Corner ornaments are individually cast and numerals are gold plated. The cable driven movement plays the chimes of Whittington, St. Michael and Westminster.

A solid brass owner's name plate is reserved for you. Ask to see the Saxony in the Zagaroli Collection when you visit our store.
