Second try nets singer a big win

T'S EASY TO talk about being a good sport when you've just been mamed Miss Michigan.

But Kathy (Katie) Pennington knows about losing gracefully.

A Miss Michigan runner-up last year as Miss Jackson County, the gospel singer headed right back to Muskegon the first chance she got. And as Miss Heart of Michigan she won the state-wide competition June 12.

"There's only one winner as far as the first chance she got. And as Miss Heart of Michigan she won the state-wide competition June 12.

"There's only one winner as far as getting the crown," she knowingly told contestants in this area's Miss North-west Macomb Scholarship Pageant Friday in Stevenson High School, Sterling Heart of Scholarship Pageant Frider, in Stevenson High School, Sterling Heart on the Scholarship Pageant Friday in Stevenson High School, Sterling Heart on the Scholarship Pageant Friday in Stevenson High School, Sterling Heart on High School Heart of Scholarship Pageant Friday in School Heart of Schoo

Michigan, but I just kept on trying.

THE JACKSON resident spent two years at Olivet Nazarene College in Illinois before dropping out of school to travel with the contemporary gospel groups Living Sound Intl. and Youth for Christ Intl.

"I knew what I was doing for for years was the right thing," said Peanington, who spent part of that time in Africa. "But I also respected my parents' wishes that I return to school." Majoring in contemporary ministries with a specialty in youth guidance, the Spring Arbor College senior plans to work for interdenominational Youth for Christ Intl.

for Christ Intl.
"I want to work with young people helping them with their decisions for life and to have a more hopeful future."
Before the show, the state queen asked to spend some time with the nine contestants in the Miss Northwest Macomb Scholarship Pageant. Residents of Avon Township and Troy are eligible to compete in the preliminary contest.

IT WAS AN exciting moment for the to compete in the presiminary contest.

IT WAS AN exciting moment for the aspirants. "Are you nervous? No, not at all," kidded the 25-year-old, asking the teen-agers handone having you here." sighed Veronica Perran, who later won the pagear... "You're just a dream of their questions about her new role.

"Are you looking forward to being Miss America?" asked Lias Marie Jansen. "If's just an honor to be there," asswered Miss Michigan.

"I feel like the same person I've al-ways been, but with more responsibility. I know people are watching me."

"Smile at those pidges. They're watching you all the time evening-gown competition is "your time to be a lady—just milk!".

"And put Vaseline on your teeth. That wilk keep them smilling."

While urging the contestants to each otheir best, he asked them to "remember — no back stabbing." And suggested they keep in touch with friends they made during the pageant preparations.

"BE GENUINE and support the other girls throughout," she told them. "Remember, whoever wins be behind tat girl."

Pennington, who entered the Miss Michigan Pageant because she needed college scholarship money, told the local contestants she felt a "real peace" during her second try for the title.

"Thank you, Lord"—that was my first feeling. I didn't cry. I was just tremendously happy," she recalled.
Asking if they would like to pray with her before the pageant, Miss Michigan held hands with them and bowed her head. "Lord, I pray You will have your will lonight," she said quietly. "And I gray that the girls who don't win will have an extra boost from this."
