

Fixins' at the temple

Once again the Masonic Temple Association of Farmington will sponsor a wide variety of meals and activities in conjunction with the 18th Annual Farmington & Farmington Hills Founders Festival.

The Masonic Temple, whose building at Grand River and Farmington Road has long been a landmark and symbol of downtown Farmington, will sponsor five different delicious meals, as well as the traditional Crafters' Corner. All events will be held at the Temple or on the Temple grounds. And while there is a charge for the meals, and the Crafters' Corner's display items are for sale, everyone is invited to browse.

Beginning on Sunday, July 25, with a Chicken Bar-B-Que from noon until 6 p.m., the Masonic Temple Association's schedule includes a pasty dinner on Wednesday evening, July 28, and an Old-Fashioned Smorgasbord on Thursday, July 29. Both events run from 5 to 7 p.m.

The Swiss steak dinner will be served on Friday, July 30, from 5 to 7 p.m., while on Saturday evening, July 31, a ham dinner will be available during the same hours. On Sunday, Aug. 1, plan to enjoy the traditional Pancake Breakfast at the Temple from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The Temple's Crafters' Corner, which has become an institution at each Founders Festival, will be open from 9 a.m. until 10 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, July 28-31. A wide range of craft items will be on display for sale.

For more information about any of these events, contact the Masonic Temple Association.
