

Bid summer farewell with a picnic for the road

You vaguely remember the date but you know perfectly well when romance began suddenly this summer over a drink at night with someone who had been but a passing acquaintance.

You were talking about ... what was it exactly?

It doesn't matter now, though you are sure it was profound then and impressive.

Two hours passed quickly and, before you realized it, it was 2 a.m. Last call was a memory. A late-night rendezvous was arranged for breakfast at a small-but-crowded after-hours restaurant.

Secret intimacies were exchanged into the morning

over cold eggs and gallons of coffee that assured

you both a sleepless night.

Daylight was shining and you went off to Eastport, a walk, a pick-up of fruit and bread and cheese.

From there it was on to the beach for a day of rubbing suntan oil onto the flesh of spring and chasing waves.

Summertime, and the living was easy as the two of you became known to be inseparable, watching the boats on the river, dancing at ethnic festivals, rediscovering restaurants, going to concerts at the Knob and Meadowbrook, screening a few foreign and domestic films, camping up north, weekending out of town, nights here, nights there. Heads turned at gatherings with friends and family, their whispers spoke envy in July.

With the news that that bitterly announced

August's retirement came a faintly expected cooling of the spirit. No fears, just a simple parting of the ways. It was fun and now it's over. Like summer.

Until we meet as friends again, said you both.

What about the plans made for the weekend after next? The concert at the Knob for which tickets are already secured?

Sure, we'll do it, for old times' sake. You bring the food. You bring the dessert. We'll bring the re-fresher with bourbon and pretend September hasn't come. See you then.

POCKET SANDWICHES
12 slices cooked ham, honey-style loaf, peppered

or barbecue loaf
½ cup yogurt
½ cup shredded zucchini
½ cup finely chopped radishes
½ tsp. sugar
½ tsp. dill weed

2 leaves pita bread, cut in half crosswise
1 cup shredded lettuce
8 ¼-inch thick slices tomatoes

Combine yogurt, zucchini, radishes, sugar and dill weed. Cover tightly and refrigerate 2-4 hours or overnight. To make sandwiches, enlarge pockets in pita bread when necessary. Fold luncheon meats in half diagonally; place three slices in each pocket. Place ¼ cup shredded lettuce and two tomato slices in each pocket. Spoon sauce over vegetables. Serves four.

APPLE SPICE MUFFINS
1 pkg. (18 ½ oz.) spice cake mix
1 can (20 oz.) apple pie filling
1 ½ cups wheat bran cereal morsels
½ cup chopped nuts
2 eggs
½ cup oil
¾ cup butter milk

In large mixing bowl, combine all ingredients at low speed just until completely mixed, stirring bottom of bowl once or twice. Batter can also be mixed by hand or with hand-held portable mixer.

If not baking immediately, refrigerate batter up to 10 days.

In regular oven: Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Fill muffin pan with paper cupcake liners. Bake for 25 minutes or until done. Makes 2 ½ dozen 2 ½-inch diameter muffins.

In microwave oven: Line microwave-safe muffin ring with paper cupcake liners. Or insert paper liners into low custard cups or cut-off foam cups. Fill halfway with batter.

Arrange muffins in circle in oven. Set microwave on high, rotating muffins after ½ the time, until nearly dry on top. (Moist spots will dry on standing.)

Microwave times: 1 muffin, 25-45 seconds; 2 muffins, ¾-1½ minutes; 4 muffins, 1½-2½ minutes; 6 muffins, 2½-4 minutes.

PEACH REFRESHER

2 cups sliced peeled peaches (about 5)

2 cups water

¾ cup (3 scoops) lemonade mix

1 bottle (28 oz.) ginger ale, chilled

Place peaches, water and drink mix in blender container. Cover and blend on high speed until smooth, about 1 minute. Pour into nonmetal pitcher and chill. Just before serving, stir in ginger ale. Serve over ice and garnish with additional peach slices, if desired. Makes about 9 cups or 9 servings.

Another increase in interest rates for U.S. Savings Bonds.

That's the good news about U.S. Savings Bonds.

The Series BE Bonds you buy today grow bigger, with an increased interest rate of 9%. And they do it faster, with a shortened maturity period of only 8 years. Interim rates have been improved, too. Bonds earn 6% after 1 year and 8 ½% if held 5 years.

These changes make Bonds much more desirable. And with the Payroll Savings Plan, it's easier to save more, in a shorter time.

In fact, almost all outstanding Savings Bonds will benefit from a 1% increase to their next maturity.

So take another look at Bonds. They're still easy to buy through the Payroll Savings Plan; they're safe, guaranteed. Take a look at the tax benefits. The new interest rates. The shortened maturity. And you'll see Bonds do make sense.

For you, and for your country.
