

... Autumn eventful at Interlochen

For this first in a series of five concerts, the Academy music teachers will perform selections commemorating the 100th and 250th birthdays of composers Igor Stravinsky and Franz Joseph Haydn respectively. Included on the program is Stravinsky's "L'Histoire du soldat" (the story of a soldier who makes a pact with the devil) and Haydn's "Quartet in D Minor, Op. 76, No. 2 (Quiten)."

Series tickets for all the Chamber Music Series performances are priced at $14 and are available from the Special Events Office. Single tickets will be offered for sale at the Chapel door the night of the performance if seats are still available ($4 each).

"Something's Afoot" in the Academy Theatre Arts Department in October when the students and staff present the Agatha Christie spoof of the same name. Running back to back, on Oct. 29 and 30 at 8 p.m., and again as a matinee at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 31, this musical mystery is just in time for a little good-natured Halloween fun. Tickets will be made available at the Grunow door the night or afternoon of the performance.

Ten typical Christie characters — the maid, the butler, the middleaged female detective, the retired colonel and the young couple — are brought together on an isolated island off the coast of England. When one is murdered, it's anybody's guess "Who Done It."

October water is beautiful and students and guests take advantage of the solitude for a little kayaking.

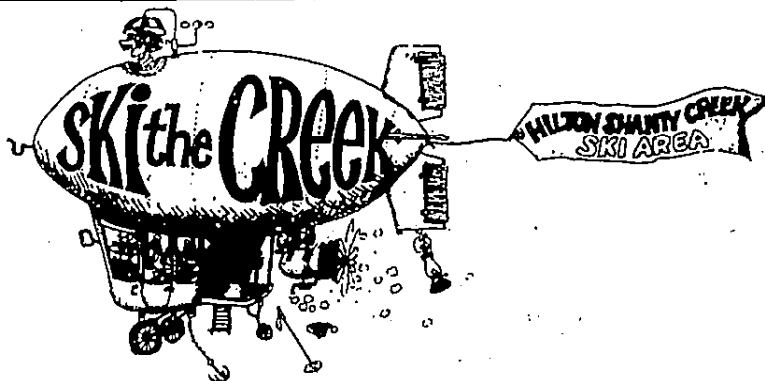

Other entertainment possibilities for an Interlochen autumn include: an art exhibit opening on Oct. 2 and continuing through Oct. 16 in the Gallery (hours are 11 to 1 and 7 to 8 Tuesday through Saturday); an IAA Orchestra concert on Oct. 2; an IAA choral and Band concert on Oct. 9; an IAA Percussion Ensemble and Studio Orchestra concert on Oct. 15; the popular Collage concert on Oct. 22 and 23 featuring most of the Academy music groups in non-stop performance; an art exhibit opening on Oct. 23 and continuing through Nov. 6; an IAA String Orchestra and Brass Ensemble concert on Oct. 29; and an IAA Choral and Band concert on Oct. 30.

For ticket information and more details about these upcoming Interlochen arts events call the Special Events Office at 276-9221. Or call Interlochen and ask for the concert line recording during non-business hours.
