Mrs. Whistered Worshees, school librarian, will acquaint been with the fuscionation of listening to an expert story teller on the following Wednesday.

During these visits, parents may complete the necessary registration forms such as enrollment cards, emergency cards, family data, and health forms.

CERTIFIED BIRTH certifi-cates must be shown for every prospective pupil. Also, health certificates must be completed and signed by the child's doc-tor.

On Round-up Day, the final orientation session, regular kindergarten classes will not meet so that teachers may introduce the pre-schoolers to an hour of typical class time.

"We hope these experiences will help each child make an easy adjustment to the start of school life." commented Nicholas Abid, William Grace principal.

KIM AND RICKIE De-GROOT of Fenton spent the weekend in Farmington with both their grandparents Mr. And Mrs. Country Club.

Paul and Vetta Fenton are back from a most marvelous two month trip to Africa. They flew to New York City where they spent a few days before boarding a jumbo jet Feb. 4 for the flight to London.

From there they flew by South African Airways to Johannesburg—a 17½ hour trip because they cannot fly over the African mainland.
