We have the new kind of Armstrong floor that hates waxing as much as you do.

Solarian™
The sunnier floor that shines without wax. In fact, Solarian should not be waxed, since most household waxes will not adhere to its unique high-gloss wear surface. With no wax to buy, apply and let dry... you save money, time and work. No yellowing, no stripping.

The secret behind the waxless shine.
A major new development—the Mirabond™ Wear Surface—is an entirely new formulation that maintains its brilliant gloss far longer than any vinyl floor. And the nonporous, nubly surface makes Solarian much easier to clean than a vinyl floor—even black heel marks wipe right up with mild cleaner.

As beautiful to look at as it is to care for.
Choose Solarian in this crisp mosaic design or a gentle marble graining, both in four sunny, kitchen-perfect colors.

Let us show you this amazing new development in flooring. Only $7.95 a sq. yd.

Halleys Married In Ypsilanti

The Congregational Church of Ypsilanti was the scene of the March 21 wedding of Eastern Michigan University graduates Judith Marie Crouch and Donald Judson Halley.

Mr. and Mrs. M.W. Crouch of Jener Street, Plymouth, are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Van Arnold of Anchorville and the late James Halley.

The Rev. John Fitzgerald heard the couple's vows.

THE BRIDE given by her father in marriage, wore a floor-length gown of white nylon with lace bodice and long lace sleeves. A seed pearl and crystal crown held her bouffant veil, and she carried orchids surrounded by tiny white carnations in a colonial arrangement.

Mrs. Diane Pierson, a pink dotted swiss empire gown with lace trim. She carried a colonial bouquet of multi-colored carnations and mums.

ASSISTING the bridegroom were Paul Eisele, best man, and Jerry Udell, usher.

Mrs. Crouch wore a beige dress and Mrs. Arnold was in turquoise.

The reception was held in the church parlor with 125 guests attending. Ypsilanti will be the couple's home.

Vows Are Spoken In Bethany

Bethany Baptist Church Livonia was scene of the recent marriage of Vicki Louise Sicketts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Sicketts of Livonia and Marine Cpl. Gary L. Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Seremak, also of Livonia.

The Rev. Bert Kreller officiated for the double-ring ceremony and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

A COLONIAL GOWN of chantilly lace with bouffant skirt, long sleeves, and sabrina neckline was the bride's choice. A pearl headpiece held her veil and she carried white orchids edged in blue, white carnations and blue stephanotis.

Her attendants wore empire gowns with royal blue velvet bodices and light blue skirts and carried white carnations edged in blue.

Mrs. Carl D. Sicketts, sister-in-law of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Gerald Sicketts and Mrs. Ronald Vincent, and Pamela Papp was junior bridesmaid.

ASSISTING the bridegroom were Carl D. Sicketts as best man, Gerald Sicketts and Loyd Weykoff as ushers and Michael Lane as junior usher.

Mrs. Sicketts wore a gold coat and dress ensemble and Mrs. Seremak was in pink lace.

The reception was held in Ford Local 182 Hall, Livonia.
