Food delivery available for qualified seniors

Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation senior adult program, in affiliation with Focus: HOPE, is the distribution site for the senior food program, a pilot program funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.
To qualify, persons 60 years and older with limited incomes can apply by signing an affidavit certifying their age and need. The participants will receive a delivery of food once a month for 13 months.
At this time, there are a few openings that will be filled according to need. All names taken will be kept on a waiting list for future availability.

Those seniors who feel they would qualify are asked to call the parks and recreation senior adult office at 474-6115, ext. 285, for further information.
Volunteers are still needed to help with deliveries of the food to the seniors once a month. Those who wish to help should call the parks and recreation office.
