VIRGINIA (GINGER) RENTZ
Virginia Rentz, 41, died the morning of Dec. 23. Born in Astoria, N.Y., Mrs. Rentz worked for Charloes and Co. She was a member of the Farmington Welcoming Wagon.

Survivors include her husband, Warren, sons Chris and Jeff, parents Francine and Alexander Michaels, and brothers Bob and Peter.

Cremation was at Evergreen Cemetery in Detroit and arrangements were made by Thayer Rock Funeral Home of Farmington. The family requests that memorial contributions be sent to the American Cancer Society.

Jogger killed

Craig Jon Kutinsky, an 18-year-old Farmington Hills resident, was killed December 24 by a hit-and-run driver while jogging on M-119 about a mile north of the Petoskey city limits.

The Emmett County Sheriff's Department is searching for leads and says no witnesses to the accident have come forward.

A 1982 graduate of Harrison High School, Kutinsky was a freshman at the University of Michigan studying history and political science.

"Craig was a good student and ran every day — not competitively but more just to build himself up," said his older brother Brian.

Kutinsky was found on the shoulder of M-119 between Petoskey and Harbor Springs by Emmett County patrolmen about two minutes after the accident.

He was running southbound in dark, rainy weather shortly after 5:30 p.m. when he was struck from the rear by a hit-and-run driver, the sheriff's department said.

Kutinsky was transported to the Little Traverse Division of Northern Michigan Hospitals by Petoskey Ambulance and later to Munson Medical Center. He was pronounced dead of extensive head injuries at 11:05 p.m. December 24.

The family was up north for a ski holiday.

Kutinsky is survived by parents, Leslie and Donna; brother Brian; sisters Susan and Alexis; and grandmothers, Irene Kutinsky and Anya Freeman. Services were from Ira Kaufman Funeral Chapel December 26.

JAMES H. NUGENT
James H. Nugent, 50, died Dec. 25 at Providence Hospital after a short illness. A native Detroit, Nugent was a federal court administrator in U.S. District Court and taught criminology at Schoolcraft College in Livonia.

Nugent graduated from the University of Detroit in 1958 and earned a master's degree in sociology from the University of Detroit in 1965. He was a Korean War veteran and a member of the Catholic Central High School Dads Club.

A Farmington resident, Nugent is survived by his wife, Mary M., sons Thomas, James, Michael and Patrick, parents Charles and Monica, and sisters Mary Ellen Falk, Patricia Penta and Joan Dudley.

Funeral services were held at O'Brien Chapel and C. Sullivan Funeral Home in Novi. Burial was Wednesday at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery from Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church.

The family asks that memorial contributions be made to the Capuchin Soup Kitchen.

MADELYN M. MERRIFIELD
Madelyn Merrifield, 68, died Dec. 24 in Garden City Osteopathic Hospital.

She was born Dec. 20, 1893, in Port Huron.

A Farmington Hills resident, Merrifield was a retired accounting office manager. She is survived by sons Robert C. Isbell of Farmington Hills, a nurse and three nephews.

Burial at Oakview Cemetery in Royal Oak was Monday from Thayer-Rock Funeral Home. Fr. Ronald Marlow officiated.

The family asks that contributions be made to the Michigan Cancer Society.

FRANCES R. BEECHLER
Frances Beechler died Dec. 23 at Beyer Hospital in Ypsilanti. She was 78.

Beechler was born Sept. 21, 1904, in Alpena. The Harper Woods resident lived in Ypsilanti for the last five years.

She is survived by a sister, Clara Isidori Knight of Farmington, niece Lola Robert of Lansing, other nieces and nephews.

The funeral Mass was said by Fr. John Mabarok at St. Jude Catholic Church in Detroit Dec. 24. Interment from Thayer-Rock Funeral home was at Mt. Olivet Cemetery.
