Country Day plans basketball clinic for area youth

Detroit Country Day varsity basketball coach Kurt Keener will conduct the fourth Yellowjacket Basketball Clinic for boys and girls in grades third through sixth beginning Jan. 15. The eight-week session will be held every Saturday from 9-11 a.m. at the school's new gymnasium.

Keener, a former Little All-American at Wittenberg (Ohio) University, will be joined by his assistant coaches and several Country Day varsity basketball players. The clinic will consist of guest speakers, individual instruction, written evaluations of each child's progress and one-on-one competition. The $40 registration fee includes T-shirt, awards and prizes and weekly newsletter.

For more information contact Keener or Charles Schmitt at 646-7717 from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. weekdays or stop at the Detroit Country School at the corner of 13 Mile and Lahser roads, Birmingham.

● HOCKEY'S MASTERS

Former Detroit Red Wing greats will return to the ice Jan. 11 for the Lucky Strike Masters of Hockey at Joe Louis Arena at 7:30 p.m.

Gordie Howe, Ted Lindsay, Alex Delvecchio, Frank Mahovlich, Bill Gadsby and other Red Wing icers will face off against a squad of Masters led by Phil Esposito, Bobby Hull, Yvon Cournoyer, Stan Mikita and others in the exhibition game.

Proceeds from the game will benefit current and former National Hockey League players through the Phil Esposito Foundation's NHL Alumni Crisis and Post Career Planning Program.

Tickets are on sale now at the Joe Louis Arena box office, Hudson's and all CTC Oulets. Tickets are $10, $8 and $6. Children under 12 and groups receive a $2 discount.

For more information call 567-6000.

● FERRIS WRESTLING

Ferris State College, ranked 16th nationally in the NCAA Division II by Amateur Wrestling News, has overcome a rash of injuries so far this season to post a 5-2 dual meet record while recording high finishes in five tournaments.

The defending Great Lakes Conference champions received help from several first-year wrestlers to overcome the injuries, including Roger Erickson, a graduate of Troy Athens. The heavyweight stepped in and took a first place at the Muskegon Community College Open with a four-victory, three-pin performanace.

The Bulldogs are now enjoying a holiday break before returning to the mat for a Jan. 7 home dual meet against Northern Michigan University.

● BLIND SKIERS

Volunteers are needed to assist in a cross country skiing program for the blind this winter at Glen Oaks Golf Course in Farmington Hills.

Some 30 skiers of at least intermediate ability, age 18 years or older, will be used to assist the blind skiers on a one-to-one basis.

A training session will take place on Jan. 8 from 10:45 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. at Glen Oaks on 13 Mile Road between Orchard Lake and Middlebelt in Farmington Hills. The program takes place on Jan. 15 and 29 and Feb. 5 at Glen Oaks.

For more information, call the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission at 625-8133 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

● INDOOR TRACK

It's a bit in the future, but the people in the University of Michigan's Athletic Department would like to remind track and field fans that National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Indoor Track Championships will be held March 11-12 at the Pontiac Silverdome.

For the first time this year, men's and women's events will be held at the same place on the same day. In the 1982 event, held at the Silverdome, an NCAA attendance record of 14,107 was established.

Ticket information may be obtained by calling Don Triveline, U-M's Marketing and Promotions Director, at 663-2411.

● TABLE TENNIS WIZ

Michelle Mantel, a 12-year-old from Southfield, recently won the U.S. National Girls 13-and-under table tennis championships in Las Vegas. She defeated Stephanie Fox from St. Louis in three games.

Mantel also won the all ages women's title, while taking second in both the under-13 doubles and under-15 doubles.

Mantel attends a private school in Southfield.
