Looking for something to do New Year's Eve?

THE HOLIDAY INN has no rooms left, but is selling tickets for dinner and entertainment slated to begin at 7 p.m. Cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, a filet mignon dinner and midnight champagne toast are available for $89.95 per couple. Dollars Destination Love will provide live entertainment from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m.

HONEY TREE Family Dining will serve New Year's Eve dinner until 10 p.m. so that its "employees can be with their families and get to parties." Diners will be entertained by a piano player and may order alcoholic beverages, as the Honey Tree has a liquor license.

I BROWSE Bookstore again will host benefit party at 10:30 p.m. featuring two short chamber music concerts, one in 1982 and one in 1983, with Detroit symphony musicians performing the music of Vivaldi, Telemann, Bach and Baroque composers.

The buffet style menu includes quiche, barbecued franks, spare ribs, meatballs, cheese, and vegetables. Singles and couples also will enjoy wine, champagne, games and door-prizes for $20 per person.

To charge or reserve tickets, call Renaissance Concerts at 62-M-U-S-I-C. LMS CUISINE will turn out the lights and pass out party favors to Chinese food fans at midnight. Diners may order liquor until 2 a.m.

McDONALD'S will close at 7 p.m. New Year's Eve. McFROCK'S features a "party-type atmosphere," no cover and no minimum New Year's Eve. Unescorted ladies will be offered "dollar drinks" and all may dance to disc jockey selections that "include everything." McFroek's will be open and serving until 4 a.m., and will distribute party favors, goodies and complimentary champagne at midnight.

MOUNTAIN JACK'S says party favors and complimentary champagne at midnight "go without saying." Liquor will be served till 3 a.m., while the top 40 band Five Hats will play from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m., adding another set "if business warrants it."

The best house is taking reservations for dinner. Prior arrangements are unnecessary for seating in the lounge.

THE OLD VILLAGE INN will feature the Stone Country Band, a country western group, for a $5 cover. Ham and turkey dinner with potato salad and beans will be featured. Party favors will be distributed in time to toast to the new year.

OSHEEHANS IRISH TAVERN, an Irish eatery, features a New Year's Eve Happy Hour from 10 p.m. to 4 a.m. Beer will be discounted while highballs will go two for one.

Selected "munchie items" will be given away after 12:30 a.m.

There'll be open seating for dinner "for everybody and anybody."

ROMAN TERRACE has scheduled three dinner seatings at 6:30, 7:30 and 10 p.m. A $10 deposit per person will be deducted from the price of selected dinners. The limited menu features various veal and shrimp dishes.

Tom Altenburg plays the piano and sings beginning at 10 p.m., revving up celebrants for the dawn of 1983.

STEAK AND ALE is taking dinner reservations and will serve from its regular menu. Patrons will toast with complimentary champagne at midnight and dance to Topaz, a top 40 group, until 2 a.m.

TOKYO JAPANESE STEAK HOUSE will also serve from its regular menu until 11:30 or midnight. No entertainment is scheduled.

Other New Year's Eve closings include Mike and Tom's Pub, which shuts its doors at 8 p.m., and the Rustic Pub, which will call it a day at 4 p.m.

YOUNGSTERS AND TEENAGERS

also have a chance of New Year's festivities.

The first annual Farmington Area YMCA New Year's Eve Sleep Over Party for 5-10-year-olds begins at 7:30 p.m. and lasts until 9:30 or 10 a.m. New Year's Day.

Sixteen dollars from members and $20 from non-members buys a late-night treat, punch, noise-makers, hats, plus a party T-shirt. Activities will include a late-night swim, movie and "loads of fun-time activities."

Doughnuts and hot chocolate await youngsters in the morning.

Registration is limited. Those interested may call 553-4020.

CAMPUS LIFE sponsors an all-night party at Schoolcraft College in Livonia New Year's Eve. Featured will be "an indoor riot" — a competition of "wild games between 20 of the area high schools, including Northwestern, Gross Pointe North, Birmingham Groves, Millford, and Clarkston. A live band, racquetball, pizza feast and volleyball will add to the fun.

Campus Life will host more than 500 teenagers in an effort "to provide teens with a positive alternative to the 'typical' New Year's Eve celebration."

The party gets started at 9 p.m. and concludes at 7:30 a.m. New Year's Day at the Athletic Complex. Call 533-3900 for more information.

BONAVENTURE SKATING CENTER features an open session from 9 p.m. till 12:30 a.m., a half-hour bonus, for all ages. As 1983 begins, over 100 balloons will topple from the ceiling. A drawing at 11:45 p.m. will bestow skating wheels and record albums on the winners, while an all-night special awaits hungry skaters at the snack bar. (Anyone buying a hotdog, pizza or hot pretzel will get a small pop for 10 cents).

No "fun caps" (offered by soft drink companies and enticing holders to discounts) will be accepted.

Restaurateur charges city with selective enforcement

"IF THEY come in drunk, we throw them out," he said. "I don't need dollars to put up with all the aggravation. We don't need it. We like to cater to the family crowd."

On the other hand, Kasapis said of the 19 Ram's Horn restaurants in the Detroit area, only the Farmington restaurant is forced to close for the night. He said the Farmington city ordinance puts him at an unfair disadvantage when restaurants such as Denny's, the Clock and Landmark in Farmington Hills are all allowed to stay open all night.

"You've put us in an untenable, non-competitive situation," Kasapis told Farmington council members recently. In explaining the reasoning for the 1 a.m. curfew, council members said the restaurant that used to occupy the site Ram's Horn now occupies was a source of frequent complaints from surrounding residents. It was operated by the Landmark Restaurant Corp.
