JOINING THE EFFORTS to collect food for those in need are Botsford Hospital and Bonaventure Roller Rink. After reading the Observer's story on the food distribution center at Farmington Hills City Hall, the department heads at the health center decided to take action. "It was the consensus of all the department heads that the Botsford family of employees would want to participate in a program of this type . . . With our 1,500 plus employees, the hospital can fill many bags with sustaining food," said Gerson Cooper, Botsford vice president of administration. After collecting goods at the hospital, they will be taken to the Farmington Hills center.

Bonaventure will do its part by having a special Skate on Your Can session from 6:30-8:30 p.m. on Wednesday. Admission for that evening will be, you guessed it, a can of food. The only charge will be a $1 for skate rental. Bonaventure is located at 24505 Halsted.

CONGRATULATIONS TO Kimberly Garrett, a student at Our Lady of Mercy High School, who won honorable mention in the fiction category of the Ninth Annual Writers' Contest for high school students sponsored by the Eastern Michigan University English Language and Literature Department. She was one of 200 entries from 31 high schools submitted to the contest.

SEVERE WEATHER PROCEDURES — During severe weather, parents are requested to tune to local radio stations for information about school closings. Parents and children are requested not to call radio or TV stations, the police or school officials. You can help by keeping telephone lines open and by relying upon broadcast information.

The possibility always exists an emergency might occur which would necessitate school being dismissed early. Parents should instruct children where to go in the event that they are sent home before regular dismissal time and find no one there.

TAX AIDES — All members of Farmington Hills Chapter of American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) have their work cut out for them from now through April 12. All schooled in the ways of income tax forms, the aides will be posted at various sites in the sister cities to aid seniors and the handicapped in completing their 1982 federal and state income tax returns. Their schedules will be printed in each issue up to deadline day in the Community Calendar.

THE FARMINGTON HILLS Parks & Recreation Department has flooded four outdoor ice skating rinks. The rinks are at Glen Oaks Golf Course at 13 Mile, east of Orchard Lake Road; Waldron Park, Waldron at Independence; Lincolnshire Estates Subdivision, East Middle School; Rolling Oaks Subdivision, commons area.

The rinks at Glen Oaks Golf Course and Waldron Park will be maintained on a regular basis while the rink at East Middle School and in the Heritage Hills commons area will require general ice cleaning by the skaters. The rinks will be open daily, weather permitting.

EAGLE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL, Middlebelt and 14 Mile Roads is flying a new U.S. flag presented by Quakertown Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Don P. Fairchild, Quakertown regent, presented the flag and a copy of the Flag Code along with certification that the flag had flown over the Capital. Frank Kasun, principal of Eagle school, accepted the flag.

OCC WOMENCENTER'S ongoing support group for anyone interested in sharing common problems, setting goals, or needing support for growth opportunities, meets from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. every Friday. Meetings are held in the home of the group leader, Robin Cohen. Persons wishing to join the group are invited to call Womencenter from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, 471-7602.

KUDOS TO the Farmington School District on having its buses receive 100 percent ratings for the 12th year in a row on safety inspection by the State Police.

DID YOU KNOW that 16 seniors from Farmington schools qualified as semifinalists in the 1983 National Merit Scholarship Competition and that 87 students in Farmington High Schools participated in the Advance Placement Program of the College Entrance Examination Board and 43 received advanced college credits.
