

Underwriter is promoted

Denia Shunta of Farmington Hills has been promoted to field underwriting manager for the Michigan region of the Allstate Insurance Companies. Allstate, a subsidiary of Sears, is the second-largest property and casualty insurer in the United States. It is also the 13th-largest writer of personal life insurance in the country.

Shunta, a former Muskegon resident, joined Allstate in 1976, after earning his bachelor of science degree at Central Michigan University. He has a certificate of insurance from the Insurance Institute of America and sits on the board of directors for the Pontiac Neighborhood Housing Services. In addition, Shunta has been a Junior Achievement project business consultant and a coordinator for the United Foundation Torch Drive.

"If you don't have an IRA yet, make sure you look into NBD's.

We take the guesswork out of which plan is best for you.

And we're paying highly competitive bank interest rates."

Investing in an Individual Retirement Account* is not something you should take lightly. With all the different IRA saving investments available, and with so many new sources to get them from, you owe it to yourself to be absolutely sure the one you get is exactly right for your retirement plans.

We can help. You see, NBD bankers are trained to sort out one IRA investment from another and then help you choose the most appropriate. Quickly. Easily. Then there's the matter of interest rates.

Because how much you earn now is so important to how much you get later, we urge you to compare.

When you do, you'll find that National Bank of Detroit offers highly competitive fixed interest rates on IRAs.

And not only competitive, but guaranteed from 18 to 60 months.

So do a little comparison shopping for your IRA. Check out who has what and how much they're offering. We think you'll find what you're looking for at National Bank of Detroit.

We've been dealing in futures for a long, long time.

Compare. Then call
