Three Flags DAR honors essay contest winners

Nichole Bushey, Julie Stockel and Kristine Kirsten, all of Farmington Hills, are winners in the Contest sponsored by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR). Locally the three are sponsored by Three Flags Chapter DAR.

Nichole is a fifth grader at Larkshire Elementary School. Julie is a sixth grader and Kristine an eighth grader who both attend East Middle School. Topic of this year's contest is "America, I Love You."

The three will be guests of honor at a reception hosted by the chapter in the Royal Oak home of Mrs. Howard Byrnes Feb. 14.

Essay contest winners hosted

Quakerstown Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) will honor three local winners of the DAR Adriatic history essay contest, their parents and teachers at the chapter meeting 1 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 15, in Farmington Hills Branch Library.

The winners, sponsored by Quakerstown, are Matt Slowe, a seventh grader who attends Southfield Christian School, Sandy Pelky, a seventh grader from Novi Christian School; and Stephanie Odam, an eighth grader from Plymouth Christian Academy. Each will receive a bronze medal and a certificate.

The topic for their essay was, "Everyday Life in Early America." The contest is open to students in grades five to eight. Entries undergo local, division and national judging by a panel of non-DAR judges.

Gold medals will be presented to division winners. The four national winners, one in each grade level, will receive a gold medal and a $100 savings bond.

The essays of the national winners are published each year in the Daughters of the American Revolution magazine.

The February meeting of all DAR chapters is devoted to observing American History Month.

Mrs. Don Fairchild serves as regent for the Quakerstown Chapter. Mrs. Robert Wilhelmssen, the chapter's American History Month chairwoman, will present the three local winners with their awards.

Certification earned

Kaye C. Britton, owner and president of Kaye Britton Travel Ltd. in Farmington Hills has earned the professional designation of Certified Travel Counselor (CTC) from the national Institute of Certified Travel Agents, Wellesley, Mass. She is a veteran of 14 years in the industry.

Kaye C. Britton

A resident of Farmington Hills, Britton joins 3,700 other travel agents across the nation in achieving this distinction.

To receive certification, Britton had to acquire a minimum of five years or more travel experience and complete a two-year, graduate-level course in ethical and efficient travel agency management. She also had to pass four exams and write a travel paper.

The Institute of Certified Travel Agents is the one non-profit educational arm of the travel industry. More than 5,600 other candidates nationwide are studying for the designation, which was established in 1964.
