Are marriages made in heaven?

People shouldn't let astrology dictate who and when they should marry, but they can use it to help them understand their partners and their relationships with them, according to psychic astrologer Jacqui Kendall of Birmingham.

"I do not believe certain signs should not go with another," said Kendall, who does radio and television shows for Southfield's WXYZ and teaches parapsychology at the community houses in Birmingham and Rochester.

"All matches are OK," she said. Some are just more compatible than others.

The most tumultuous match is between a fire (Aries, Sagittarius, Leo) and water sign (Cancer, Pisces, Scorpio), said Kendall, who wrote a pamphlet titled "Couplings" on the relationships between signs.

If the person with the fire sign is strong, and his partner with the water sign is shallow, the fire sign can "dry up" the water sign, she said.

HOWEVER, if the water sign is overly strong, it can "put out" the fire sign.

The perfect match, Kendall said, is two air signs (Gemini, Libra and Aquarius) with the same goals and desires. However, if a Libra and Aquarius, for example, are moving in opposite directions, the result can be a tornado.

A match between a water and earth sign (Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn) can result in a lot of mudslinging, Kendall said. And two fire signs will have a highly intense relationship while two earth signs will make mountains out of molehills.

Prince Charles and Princess Diana of Wales are both water signs (he's a Scorpio; she's a Cancer) with a lot of depth, Kendall said. "Each one wants to seek his own level" and have his or her own way.

John F. Kennedy, a Gemini, was an air sign; Jacqueline, a Leo, is a fire sign. "We know there was some fanning of the flames in that relationship," Kendall said.

Women who are looking for lovers will find them in men with Scorpio and Libra signs. Those who want supporters should look for men with earth signs, Kendall said. And those who want their husbands also to be their best friend should seek out an Aquarius.

LEO MEN make good husbands, as long as their wives play to their egos.

Pisces women make sensitive wives, those with earth signs make good
