Brownies' talent show benefits Juliet Low fund

Five area Brownie Troops have put their singing and dancing talents together to stage a show in celebration of Girl Scout Week.

Showtime for Brownie Talent Show is at 3:45 p.m. Wednesday, March 9, and at 7 p.m. Thursday, March 10, in William Grace Elementary School, 29040 Shlawassee.

"Every year Girl Scouts all over the U.S. give money to the Juliet Low Friendship Fund," said Barbara Jones of the Michigan Metro Girl Scout Council. "We think the talent show is a delightful and unusual way for the Brownies in Farmington Hills to do this."

No admission will be charged, but guests will be asked to give a donation to the fund, named after the founder of Girl Scouting, which is used to send American Girl Scouts to other countries and to bring Girl Guides from other parts of the world to the United States.

The Brownie Talent Show features Brownies from first to third grades. It includes a pantomime to the song "Fame," an Air Band, tap dancing and the Brownie chorus singing "Tomorrow" dressed in Annie wigs and red dresses.

The girls will wear red, white and blue costumes for their finale of "America the Beautiful."
