

Sinelli-Chuchla

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sinelli of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter Diane Angela to Kenneth Edward Chuchla, son of Bernice Chuchla of Sterling Heights and Edward Chuchla of Farmington Hills.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Harrison High School, employed with Automobile Club of Michigan. Her fiancé is a graduate of Harrison High School, now serving with the U.S. Marines.

Schweizer-Danforth

Mr. and Mrs. Allen F. Schweizer of Fairway Drive, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter Susan Lenore to William Wayne Danforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Danforth of Albion Street, Farmington Hills.

The bride-elect is a Bentley High School graduate, who is employed as a cashier at Joe's Produce. Her fiancé will graduate in May from Ferris State College.

An Oct. 22 wedding is planned in Clarenceville United Methodist Church.

Carlson-Rapin

Ellen Ann Rapin and Michael Don Carlson were married by the Rev. Thomas Thompson in St. Colette Catholic Church in Livonia. She the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rapin of Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlson of Hartland.

The bride wore a gown of Schiffly lace, fashioned with seed pearls and sequins, with her Juliette cap veil, while she carried a cascading bouquet of carnations and sweetheart roses. She was attended by Andrea Masseran, Denise Rapin, Cheryl Cabot and Cindy Blay.

Vince Lizzio served as best man with groomsmen Ron Carlson, Bob Carlson and Dan Carlson. Ushers were Pat Rapin, Mitchell Lipon and Art Chwalick.

The couple received guests in Glen Oaks Country Club before aving on a wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Michigan State University employed with Beacham USA. The bride is a student teacher in Hartland. They are making their home in Grand Blanc.

Travelogue preceded by youth in concert

Ken Wolfgang's film "Tokyo: The Asian Phenix" continues the Kiwanis Travel Adventure Series Monday in Clarenceville High School's Schmidt Auditorium.

The Metropolitan Youth Symphony's Concert Orchestra will play at 7:15 p.m. with the travelogue following at 8 p.m. Individual tickets are $3.

Wolfgang's 1982 release explores Tokyo as it is today, a human river teeming with change, perpetuating past traditions, but always celebrating life. He commented that "Tokyo, like the legendary Phenix, is a symbol of continual rebirth."

He has won awards in International film festivals for his "The Soul of the Samurai" and has been accepted by National Geographic and Walt Disney Productions.

A GRADUATE of Eastern Michigan University, Wolfgang heads his own film company, Kenschro Productions in Sonoma, Calif.

The Metropolitan Youth Symphony Concert Orchestra is composed of 67 students from 22 Detroit-area communities. Conductor Douglas Bianchi will lead them in selections by Ravel, Handel, Saint-Saens and Gliere.

Farmington Hills and North Farmington Kiwanis programs benefit three children's hospitals in Michigan, the Farmington Hills YMCA as well as Boys and Girls State, Metropolitan Youth Symphony and the Special Olympics.

The Travelogue is in its 37th consecutive year and is a major Kiwanis fund raiser.

Archivist will speak

Sholem Aleichem Institute invites area residents to hear Dr. Philip P. Mason speak on "The Role of Jewish Women in the Labor Movement" at 8:30 p.m. Friday, March 25, in Franklin Pointe clubhouse, 26381 Franklin Pointe Drive, Southfield.

Mason, professor of history, university archivist and director of Walter P. Reuther Library of Labor and Urban Affairs at Wayne State University, is also co-director, University of Michigan-Wayne State University Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations since 1979. He has been research assistant and cataloguer of manuscripts, University of Michigan Historical Collection and director of archives for the state of Michigan for five years.

There is no charge.

Antique show events benefit Founders Society

The Founders Society, Detroit Institute of Arts, will benefit from several events held in conjunction with the Old Inn Antique Show at the Dearborn Inn, March 17-20.

Patron tickets for the Thursday, March 17 preview are $50 and $25 per person. The first includes cocktails, buffet dinner and the preview, and the $25 tickets include a champagne reception and preview.

Mr. and Mrs. H. George Bickelmann of West Bloomfield are honorary co-chairmen for the evening along with

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Fox Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. James O. Keene of Beverly Hills.

Bickelmann has been a collector for 40 years and an appraiser/dealer for nearly 15 years. He is past president of the Birmingham Historical Society.

The Keenes have donated art and antiques to the State Department Reception Room in Washington, D.C., and the Detroit Institute of Arts, and he is past president of the Associates of the American Wing at Detroit Institute of Arts.

Ernest Du Mouchelle will give a lecture at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, March 19, on "The Ins and Outs of Collecting Today." The $18-per-person donation includes admission to the show on Saturday. Du Mouchelle has been a professional auctioneer and appraiser for 23 years.

He will speak on general trends in collecting today, the state of today's market, what is currently available and where to find it.

The Old Inn Antique Show is well-known for its quality selection of decorative arts and antique furniture as well as folk art, quilts, stoneware, jewelry, pewter, coverlets, Shaker items, painted furniture, toys, baskets, paintings, primitives and silver pottery.

For information on these events, call the Founders Society Development Office, 835-1925.
