Police car is totaled

Gary Kimberly, a 27-year-old Walled Lake man, was arraigned on a drunk driving charge Monday after colliding head-on with a Farmington Hills patrol car early Monday morning.

Kimberly stood mute in 47th District Court and was released on a $150 bond. "Our car was pretty near totaled," Farmington Hills Lt. Jack Brown said. Patrol officer Dan Luoma was west-bound on Grand River, near Halsted, at 2:41 a.m. when he was hit head-on by an eastbound car, said Farmington Lt. Frank Lauhoff. Luoma was taken to Botsford Hospital and released. He is now undergoing tests for a possible back injury.

Kimberly Sue Harrison, a 21-year-old passenger in Kimberly's car, was taken to Novi's Ford Annex, treated for minor injuries and released.
