

"The Song of Bernadette" (1942), 11:40 p.m. Saturday on Ch. 9. Originally 156 minutes.

Jennifer Jones made a smashing film debut as Bernadette, the peasant girl who experienced a vision of the Virgin Mary near Lourdes, France, in 1858. Jones won a best-actress Oscar for the role, a feat that represents the Motion Picture Academy's faith in Jones, who was 24 when she portrayed the 14-year-old Bernadette. Jones is good, though, as is the film, directed by pioneer filmmaker Henry King and co-

"To Catch a Thief" (1955), 12:30 p.m. Sunday on Ch. 2. Originally 166 minutes.

It's not an Easter film, but it's one of Hitchcock's best, Grant's best and Kelly's best. That's Alfred Hitchcock, Cary Grant and Grace Kelly, of course, the latter of whom met her real-life Prince Charming during production of the film in Monaco. Jessie Royce Landis even plays her own as Grace's mother — not an easy task given the co-star competition.

Rating: $3.25.

The gospel musical "Your Arms Too Short to Box with God" continues through Sunday at the Fisher Theatre in Detroit.

This new production of Vinette Carroll's hit Broadway musical stars Patti LaBelle, direct from her Broadway engagement.

The gospel show was presented three times on Broadway, in 1976, 1980 and 1982, and twice in Detroit at the Music Hall.

Patti LaBelle stars in a role created for her. After a career spanning 20 years in the music business, LaBelle was anxious to make the leap from the concert hall to the musical stage.
