SWIMMER SIGNED

Oakiand University missed winning the men's NCAA Division II awimming championship last month on the last event, and head coach Pete Hovland already is making some moves to help remedy the situation as he signed standout performer Mike McCloakey.

A former swimmer at Moarco High School, McCloakey spent two years at Mismi University (Fis.). The Hurricanes finished 11th and 12th nationally during McCloskey's two years on the team.

His times in all three of his events would be OU and Division II records. He was a two-time high achool all-American at Monroe.

'Tm looking forward to coming to Oakiand University,' McClookey said.

'Craig Chappell (an OU swimmer) is a good friend of mine, and I'm looking forward to us trying to win a national championship."

OU offers 5 summer sports camps Bloomfield Hills Country Club, who was appointed golf director at Oakland University on 1977. Also serving as Instructors will be Katte-Cousins course superintendent Jay Delcamp, former OU athletic director Holle Lepley, and Doug Findiay, executive director Holle Lepley, and Doug Findiay, executive director of the Michigan section, PGA. coach Milan Vidakovich, and University of Wisconsin women's coach Craig Webb.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' SOCCER

Two soccer camps — a regular session and an advanced camp — will be offered. Both camps will run from July 24-29, and the fee is $185 for residents and $150 for commuters — which includes lumb and diagon.

swimming and soccer.

The sports camps, which take place in June and July, feature limited enrollment, individual attention and instruction from qualified coaches and staff members, modern living quarters with 24-hour supervision, supervised evening recreational activities, and pienty of food.

The following is a brief introduction to the five

BOYS' BASKETBALL

BOYS' BASKETBALL

This camp is for boys in the 8:17 age group, and is open either June 19:40 r June 26:40ly 1. Cost is $180 for campers who will live on campus during the seasion, and commuter's fee — which includes dally lunch — is $125.

The basketball camp, instructed by Oakland University head coach Lee Frederick and assistants John Maloney and Walt Studinger, is designed to teach new skills to the novice player and to improve the finer points of the game for the more experienced player.

Players will be grouped according to ability and size during instructional periods. Evening games will be arranged which insures even competition for all of the players.

The camp features an instructional program designed to serve all levels of players, from beginners of advanced. There is a small camper to coach ratio to allow for more personal instruction and attention, which includes six hours of lectures, demonstrations, team play and drills.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Like the boys' camp, the girls' sessions are for players between the ages of 8-17. It will run either July 10-15, or July 17-22. Cost is $160 for campers

July 10-15, or July 17-22. Cost is $160 for campers who live on campus during the session, and commuter's fee — which includes daily lunch — is $125.

The camp will stress the same principals as the boys' camp. The Oakland University women's coach — Suo Kruszewski — will direct the girls' sessions. Oakland recently named Kruszewski as head coach to fill in for Dewayne Jones, who accepted a similar position at the University of Detroit last month.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' GOLF

The golf sessions are open to youngster in the 12-18 age group, and will run June 19-24 or June 26-July 1. Cost is $185 for residents of the camp, and $150 for commuters — who will receive lunch and dinner.

The camp's goal is to develop knowledge and understanding of the fundamentals of the game, including care of the course, rules, and game etiments.
