Outstate bank buys Bankers Leasing

Union Bancorp Inc. of Grand Rapids has announced an agreement to pur-chase all of the outstanding stock of Bankers Leasing Services Inc. of South-

Bankers Leaning services inc. or oouts-field.

The transaction involved an undis-closed amount of cash and notes, ac-cording to Union Bancerp spokesman Craig Woodman. It is subject to ap-proval by the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Union Bancorp Inc. is a three-bank holding company in western Michigan headquartered in Grand Rapids.

Hankers Leasing Services is primarily engaged in third-party leasing of computers and peripheral equipment, copy machines, phone systems, furniture, and industrial equipment.

Usion Bancorp said the purchase of Bankers Leasing will allow it to broad-en the array of financial services it can offer its current and potential custom-ers in Michigan, Woodman said.

As of Dec. 31, 1982, Bankers Leasing had $8.4 million in equipment under lease.

The Auto Club suggests the following steps to impect for possible water damage:

steps to Inspect for possible water damage:

• Check the roof for damage to shingles.

• Use a flashlight or extension light to examine roof rafters in the attic area for wetspots.

• Check all cellings on the uppermost level for water stains.

• Inspect celling light fixtures for water drips.

If water is dripping from the cell-ing, punch a hole with an ice pick or screwdriver to let water escape and cover floors with plastic to prevent fur-

Evidence of water damage should be reported to your insurance companies at the earliest opportunity.

That Was The Year That Was

The first part of May marks our 16th year in business in the Farmington area. At this time, I would like to personally thank the many customers who helped me grow into the largest office supply in the Farmington area. In 1968, i started with 1,000 aquare feet, Today we have 14,000 square feet of area to give not only a fine selection of office supplies and office furniture, but good old fashloned service as well.
