

Robotics elects board member

James K. West of Farmington Hills has been elected to the board of directors of Robotics International of the Society of Manufacturing Engineers for a two-year term.

Headquartered in Dearborn, Robotics International is an educational and scientific association of scientists, engineers and managers involved in robotics technology and its application to manufacturing processes.

West, 30, is co-founder and vice president of software development for Perception, The Machine Vision Co., a Farmington Hills manufacturer of computerized optical inspection and measuring systems.

Formerly, he was a Senior Project Engineer for Manufacturing Staff at the General Motors Technical Center, Warren. During his 11-year career at GM, West did pioneering development work in the area of practical applications of machine vision technology.

He earned his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering at General Motors Institute and a master's degree at the University of Illinois.

Enterprise is lauded

The Student Economic Leadership Forum (SELF) at Lawrence Institute of Technology received two awards in the annual spring competition in Ada, Mich., April 22.

Laura Burke and Fran Luscini of Farmington Hills were two of the students on the LIT team. Burke is a sophomore, and Luscini is a junior in the School of Management at LIT.

This annual competition, sponsored by Amway Corp., Dow Chemical Co., and Whirlpool Corp., recognizes outstanding college projects which promote the free enterprise system in the community.

ATTENTION ALL STATE POLICY HOLDERS

We are determined to provide you with the best possible claim service! To this end, we have greatly reinforced our staff of more than 500 claim people serving our greater area. We have scheduled our Drive-In facilities to be open throughout the weekend, and extended all claim hours and services to settle your claims as rapidly as possible.

With nearly 9,000 claims already called in to our offices and the volume continuing, you may experience some delay in having your phone call answered. Please excuse the delay, as it is unavoidable when a catastrophe such as this occurs.

Be assured that you have purchased the finest, fastest claim service available, and 1,400 Michigan Allstaters are pledged to that end.
