Dystrophy drive planned for June

The Muscular Dystrophy Association will conduct its annual door to door campains. The man Tuesday, June 7. The campains a volumer effort involving thouse 1 marchers across the metro area is association's angest local fund-rating association's largest local fund-rating the work of the man will be seen to cording to volunteer coordinator. He will white a consideration of the contraction of the seen of

Farmington Mbserver

HOME DELIVERY SERVICE Newsstand . . . per copy, 25¢ Carrier . . . monthly, $1.75 Mail yearly, $35.00

house solicitation will help provide funds for research, as well as disgnostic services, the tests, braces, wheel-chains, follow-up care, counseling and recreation programs to people in Southeastern Michigan with one of the 40 neuronnecular diseases covered by MDA. The association provides services to patients at no cost to them or their families.

Funds from the drive also help support the local MDA-sponsored free clinics located at Oakland General Hospital in Madison Heights and Children's Hospital in Detroit.

Area residents who want to join the campaign in their neighborhoods should call the Muscular Dystrophy Association Volunteer Headquarters at 399-2980.

Area CPAs set weekend

Robert A. Clemente and David May of Farmington Hills are on the Oakland University faculty for the June 10-12 Certified Public Accountant's Weekend.

The program is offered through the university's division of continuing education.

cation.

Clemente and May, both attorneys for Bassey, Selesko, Couxens & Murphy, still instruct the class "Michigan Inheritance Taxes" on Sunday, June 12. During the CPA weekend, university faculty and professionals, expert in their respective areas, will instruct a variety of classes for CPAs to earn continuing educational bours, required for state licensure each year before July 1.

Farmington-area residents who are volunteering their time for the Muscular Dystrophy Association include (front, center) poster child Tom Neft, (back row) Marge Samson, Fran Stern, Debbie Lis, Michole Maikowkeki, Chairwoman Linda Neft and Denise Lis. This year's honorary chairman is Joe Glover.

Holiday affects post office

A SUPPLY CO.

There will be no regular mail de-liveries, post office lobby services or collection box pick-ups on Memorial Day, Monday May 30, said Postmaster, Kenneth Harris.

HAGGERTY

WALLED LAKE

2055 Haggerty Rd.

LUMBER

• (313) 356-6188 / (313) 624-4551 Mon.-Fri. 8-6, Bet. 8-5 • Bun. 10-3

However, delivery of special delivery and express mail will continue during the holiday weekend.

Normal mail services will resume Tuesday, May 31.

Programs safe in Walled Lake School District

The Walled Lake Board of Education recently voted against the layoff of some key administrators involved in those programs.

programs.

The administrators —
Athletic Director Thomas Evans, Outdoor Education Director Barbara Garbutt, and Robert Dulf, Jerry Sutton and Jerry Beers of the Community Education Department — previously were notified by the board that their contracts might not be renewed for the 1983-84 school year.

THE BOARD'S action THE BOARD'S action means the athletic, com-munity education and outdoor education pro-grams will be continued next year, said Superin-tendent Don Sheldon.

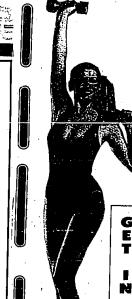

"Unless I receive direc-tion from the board to the contrary, all three pro-grams will remain in-tact," the superintendent said. "We're proceeding with budget development under the assumption McCabé

Athletic, community education and outdoor education programs in the Walled Lake School District apparently will remain, Bears subsetuently was fired by the point interfect of Education recently could be considered the program while working of Education recently could be considered to the construction of Education recently could be considered to the construction of the construction of

Observer & Eccentric

Classified Ads Work!

*With each 1 year membership purchased

We specialize in getting you in shape and keeping you that way.

H

California Style Pitness Center

ONE FREE 1

obituaries

JOHN G. McKINNON

Mr. McKinnon, 55, of Farmington died May 13 in Mt. Carmel Hospital. Mr. McKinnon and accountant. He was a World War I an an accountant. He was a World War I may veteran. Survivors include his wife, Helen; a daughter, Denise Ward as son, David, mother, Rose Bushey; and Both of the May o

DENVER L. ROCKER

Mr. Rocker, 81, of Detroit died May 13 in Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital. Born in Missouri, Mr. Rocker was a retired manager of shipping for Hyan Industries of Detroit. Survivors include his wife, Theresa; son, Deuver and a daughter Gloria Plaw, nine granchildren; and one great-grandchild.

grandchild.

Services were May 16 at HeeneySundquist Funeral Home, Farmington.
Mass was at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church with the Rev. Kean D.
Cronin officiating, Burial was in Holy Sepuichre Cemetery, Southfield.

LEMUEL HAROLD IRVING

Mr. Irving, 77, of Farmington died May 13 in Dorvin Nursing Home.
Mr. Irving was an electrician. He was a Navy externs and a member of F&AM Lodge 151 and Saginaw Electrician Local 55.
Surviving is his wife, Mildred.
Services were May 17 at Thayer-Rock Funeral Home, Farmington, with the Rev. Robert Brown of Orchard Methodiat Church officiating. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery, Farming-

CLARON ZUBER

Mr. Zuber, 89, of Farmington died May 15 in Botsford Hospital.

Born in Hickville, Ohio, Mr. Zuber was a toolmaker for the automotive in-dustry. He was a World War I Army veteran, Survivors include his wife, Lucille; sons, Claron Jr., Lewis and Richard; sisters, Euna Webster, Glaris Waters and Mary Blythe; brother, Harry; and six grandchildren.

Services were May 18 at Thayer-tioxic Funeral iteme, Farmington, with the Rev. Charles Beynon of First Unit-ed Methodist Church of Farmington of-ficiating. Burial was in Riverside Cem-etery, Plymouth.

ROBERT W. ABERNETHY

Mr. Abernethy, 85, of Farmington died May 17 in Hospice of S.E. Michl-gan, Southfield.

Born and trained in Scotland as a na-val architect, Mr. Abernethy finished the interiors of many of Detroit's build-ings including the Masonic Temple, Penobscot Building and the Detroit In-stitute of Arts. He retired as foreman, carpenter shop, Dodge Main, Detroit.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret; son James; and two grandchildren.

a bon Janner, and two granochuren.

Services were May 20 at the Hurrist
Funeral Home, Detroit with the Rev.
William Cunnings of Essential Portain and the Church officating, Burlai of Forest Laws Cemetery, Detroit, Memorials may be sent to the Ebenezer Baptist Church Memorial Fund or the Hospice of S.E. Michigan.

Woman robbed at pay phone

An unidentified man robbed a 2s-year-old Centerline women of her purse May 18 after hitting her on the head while she was making a call at a public phone in Farmington Hills Jeannie Worley told Farmington Hills police that she was making a phone call at about 1115 am, at an outside phone on Orchard Lake, Road, between 13 and 14 Mile. A man grab-hed her by the hair, then hit her with an unknown object and pulled her purze from her shoulder.

Worley said she had seen the man earlier hichhiling near 13 Mile and Orchard Lake. After grabbing Morley's purse, the man ran away, police said.

Worley described the man as be-tween 25 and 30 years of age, 5 feet 11 inches, 160 pounds, with black medium-length hair.

Folice have no suspects.

Summer Computer Camp for Kids 2 Week Bessions held throughout the Bumms 2½ - 3 Hour Classes 2-3 Days per week '40 and up per session Call for More Information

ppie computer

OMPUTER CONNECTION INC 38437 GRAND RIVER 5 FARMINGTON HILLS 477-4470

ustomer ppreciation

It's Customer Appreciation Week At Liberty State Bank & Trust

Customer Appreciation Week is our way of thanking our customers for their valued patronage. We at Liberty State know our success depends upon the professional particles and personal attention we provide to our customers. We appreciate your business and hope to see you during Customer Appreciation Week.

Complimentary Refreshments & Flowers

