City Escalates War Against Challenge Hill

FARMINGTON A number of steps have been taken by the City of Farmington in an attempt to reduce accidents on Challenge Hill between Shiawassee and 10 Mile Roads, including completion of a traffic survey and an accident analysis.

The city has already installed 200 feet of guard rail at the bottom of the hill and curve to provide protection to property on the south side of Farmington Rd.

THIS WEEK, the city will install three rumble strips immediately south of 10 Mile to warn motorists of the upcoming steep hill and need to drastically reduce speed.

The asphalt rumble strips will be 18 inches wide from curb to center of the road and about one inch in height.

The Department of Public Safety has asked the Oakland County Road Commission to install a stop light at 10 Mile and Farmington Rds. and has requested a gradual reduction in the posted speed limit north of the intersection.

City Manager John Dianan has written the planning section of the county road commission requesting a feasibility study on the rerouting of Farmington Rd. north of 10 Mile so it would connect directly into Farmington Rd. intersection at Shiawassee adjacent to the Baptist Church.

The rerouting, explained Dianan, would divert heavy traffic from the hazardous hill and curve south of 10 Mile and provide a more direct route into the city.

THE TRAFFIC SURVEY was conducted on Farmington Rd. north of Shiawassee by the Department of Public Safety in a 4½-hour period April 27 and 28. A total of 781 drivers were interviewed by city police.

Of the total motorists interviewed, 43% lived in Farmington Township, 21% in the City of Farmington, and 36% lived in other areas, explained Robert Deadman, director of the Department of Public Safety.

Of the northbound motorists, 47% came from the city, 8% from the township and 45% from other areas. Of the southbound traffic, 75% came from the township, 5% from the city and 20% from other areas.

Of those interviewed, the average number of trips daily on that stretch of Farmington Rd. was 2.8 per driver.

Deadman explained the survey showed almost twice as many township drivers as city drivers use this artery because the route is designed more for through traffic than neighborhood traffic.

AN ANALYSIS was also made of accidents from 1966 to February 1970. During this time, there were 20 accidents, with speed being the major cause of half. Ten were run-off-roadway types, nine of which were caused by speed.

Most of the 20 accidents occurred on weekends in the afternoon and early evening. Nine of the 20 mishaps occurred at the bottom of the hill.

The city council will hold a public hearing on the proposed commercial zoning classifications (C-2 and C-3) starting at 8 p.m., June 1, in council chambers.

in the fall says David Comfort, executive director of the Farmington YMCA.

City Park was also promised to police officers from the City of Farmington, Farmington Township, Livonia, Southfield, Redford and Detroit post of the Michigan State Police for softball games from May 9-Sept. 26 on Saturday evenings.

Permission was given the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America to hold its March Against Time on May 26 from 5-9 p.m. in the City of Farmington.

The American Legion Groves-Walker Post of Farmington was given permission to conduct its annual Poppy Sale on May 21, 22, 23.

The city council will hold a public hearing on the proposed commercial zoning classifications (C-2 and C-3) starting at 8 p.m., June 1, in council chambers.

Show Features Kids' Entries

Children in the special education classes of the Farmington School District will have entries in a flower show May 16-17 in the Farmington Community Center.

The show, "Spring Fling," is sponsored by Hill and Dale Garden Club. The display will be open from 2 to 6 p.m. both days.

The Hill and Dale Garden Club maintains a garden therapy program for children in the special education classes. The club has won district, state and national awards for their work with the children.

Mrs. Michael J. Byrne of Birmingham, publicity chairman for the show, says: "The flower show is a gift to the Farmington Community from the members of Hill and Dale Garden Club at the time of the spring campaign for funds to continue operation of the new Community Center."

This is an excellent opportunity for everyone to visit the new center and see what it is. It is a beautiful old home and will make a lovely background for the first flower show to be held there.

Plans Luncheon

Mrs. Olga F. Dworkin of 3481 St. Seward Ct. in Farmington is co-chairman of the Women of Wayne State University's first incentive scholarship luncheon.

The luncheon will be noon May 8 in Hugo's Restaurant in Detroit. Honored guests will be Mrs. Roman Gribbs, wife of Detroit's mayor and Mrs. William R. Keast, wife of the president of WSU.

The luncheon will kick-off a campaign to raise $40,000 for the endowment fund of the women's alumni association. Scholarships are offered to women between the ages and 23 and 55 who wish to pursue part-time study on credit programs at WSU.

Key skin refresher: after cleansing face, put 2 tea cubes in plastic wrap and glide it over face.

For mysteriously deep-set eyes, apply eye-shadow in eye-crease... then accent crease with line of liquid eye-liner.

For immaculate hot-weather looks, keep body oil and air pollution-giving off collar and cuffs by dusting them with talcum powder.

In 1850's, Lola Montez advised ladies to "relax rigid face muscles" by washing with white brandy and rose-water.

Smooth roughened hands by massaging nightly with warm oil... and buff nails with oil for a beautiful gloss.
