

Star Spangled Girl

Kathryn Paraventi is the "Star Spangled Girl" in Komed Players Dinner Theatre production of the Neil Simon comedy, which remains in Allen Park Motor Lodge through June 25. Paraventi's co-stars are Paul Scheier and Ron Turek in the Friday and Saturday night shows that are preceded by a 7 p.m. dinner. Reservations are taken by calling the dinner theater at 661-1383.

Moonlight cruise begins Freedom Festival events

The Tommy Dorsey Orchestra will be on the International Moonlight Cruise aboard the Boblo Luxury Liner from 8:30-11:30 p.m. Friday, June 24. Sponsored by the International Institute of Metropolitan Detroit and Station XJY FM 94 Radio, the popular cruise is the kick-off event of the Windsor-Detroit International Freedom Festival.

Daly and Stephen Economy, Commodore Robert Marquart of Birmingham and co-commanders Mrs. Thomas Angott of Orchard Lake and David Hwang of Livonia will greet guests as they board the ship. The Sons of Ukraine play international music on the dock at 7:30 p.m. "This cruise and this week's festival symbolizes our freedom to practice different cultures, and helps support International Institute programs that aid the foreign born," said Mary Ball, executive director at the Institute. The ethnic cruise includes performances by the Rhodians Greek band and the Grupo Gaucho Argentine dancers. Food will be available for purchase, and a cash bar will be open. Tickets are $14.75 and are available at CTC Ticket Outlets and J.L. Hudson stores and also at International Institute during business hours at 111 East Kirby at John R. in Detroit's Cultural Center. Check or money order made payable to The International Institute, can be mailed to International Moonlight Cruise, 111 E. Kirby, Detroit 48202. Deadline for mail orders is June 20. Include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Tickets will be available at the dock June 24 while they last for $15.75. The International Institute is a Torch Drive supported agency that provides social services to new immigrants and foreign speaking people as well as educational and cultural programs about the different ethnic cultures of Detroit.
